

Contents

Introduction
Dale M. Bauer and Susan Jaret McKinstry	1
1. The Dilemmas of a Feminine Dialogic
Diane Price Herndl	7
2. Voices from the Margin: Bag Ladies and Others
Suzanne Kehde	25
3. Prolegomenon for an Ecofeminist Dialogics
Patrick D. Murphy	39
4. Irigarayan Dialogism: Play and Powerplay
Gail M. Schwab	57
5. Critical Imperialism and Renaissance Drama: The Case of The Roaring Girl
Deborah Jacobs	73
6. Style and Power
Josephine Donovan	85
7. Radical Writing
Peter Hitchcock	95
8. A Quote of Many Colors: Women and Masquerade in Donald Barthelme's Postmodern Parody Novels
Jaye Berman	123

9. "Witness [to] the Suffering of Women": Poverty and Sexual Transgression in Meridel Le Sueur's Women on the Breadlines Susan Sipple	135
10. The Central Nervous System of America: The Writer As/In the Crowd of Joyce Carol Oates's Wonderland Brenda O. Daly	155
11. Language and Gender In Transit: Feminist Extensions of Bakhtin Sheryl Stevenson	181
12. Subject, Voice, and Women in Some Contemporary Black American Women's Writing Mary O'Connor	199
13. Problems of Gordimer's Poetics: Dialogue in Burger's Daughter Louise Yelin	219
Afterword Patricia Yaeger	239
Contributors	247
Index	251