

Contents

Contributors, xi

Introduction: Understanding the Blood Feuds, 1
Ronald Bayer and Eric Feldman

Part I

National Encounters with Blood and AIDS

1. Blood and AIDS in America: Science, Politics, and the Making of an Iatrogenic Catastrophe, 19
Ronald Bayer
2. HIV and Blood in Japan: Transforming Private Conflict into Public Scandal, 59
Eric A. Feldman
3. The Nation's Blood: Medicine, Justice, and the State in France, 95
Monika Steffen
4. From Trust to Tragedy: HIV/AIDS and the Canadian Blood System, 127
Norbert Gilmore and Margaret A. Somerville
5. The Never-Ending Story? The Political and Legal Controversies over HIV and the Blood Supply in Denmark, 161
Erik Albæk
6. Blood "Scandal" and AIDS in Germany, 191
Stephan Dressler
7. Blood, Bureaucracy and Law: Responding to HIV-Tainted Blood in Italy, 213
Umberto Izzo
8. HIV-Contaminated Blood and Australian Policy: The Limits of Success, 243
John Ballard

Part II

Comparative Perspectives on the Politics of Medical Disaster

9. Cultural Perspectives on Blood, 273
Dorothy Nelkin
 10. The Politics of Blood: Hemophilia Activism in the AIDS Crisis, 293
David Kirp
 11. The Circulation of Blood: AIDS, Blood, and the Economics of Information, 323
Sherry Glied
- Conclusion: The Comparative Politics of Contaminated Blood:
From Hesitancy to Scandal, 349
Theodore R. Marmor, Patricia A. Dillon, and Stephen Scher
- Index, 367