

CONTENTS

Preface	xi
Part I: Factual and Theoretical Background	1
1. Homeless Children: Who Are They?	3
Definitions	4
Background	7
Abandonment of Children	8
Causality	10
The 1980s and 1990s	12
Extent and Nature of Homelessness of Children	13
What Is Known	13
Effects on Minority Populations	16
Socioeconomic Status	17
Attitudes Toward Homeless Children	18
Where Do They Go?	19
Unique National Problem	19
Homelessness as a Social Problem	19
Summary	21
Conclusions	22
2. Social and Educational Issues	23
Interrelationships of Social Phenomena	23
Social Issues	27
Educational Issues	32

Summary	37
Conclusions	39
3. Health Issues	40
Health Hazards	41
General Risks	41
Discussion of Research Data	43
Public Health	51
Summary	52
Conclusions	53
4. Social Context of Homelessness	54
Homeless Children and Social Causality	55
Related Social Phenomena	56
Housing	57
Family Issues	64
Summary	70
Conclusions	71
Part II: The Personal Dimension	73
5. Unaccompanied Children	75
Seven Children From an Urban Shelter	76
Coastal House: Children in a Small Town Shelter	86
Discussion	94
6. Families	96
Judy, Jonathan, and Karla	97
Yolanda and Sandy	100
Rosalyn, Sadikkah, Carrie, and Jean	102
Randy and Mary	106
Miriam, Daisy, and Christopher	112
Discussion	114
7. Babies	116
Developmental Issues	116
Homeless Women With Babies	117
Abandoned Babies	118
Babies in Hospitals	119
Summary	125
Conclusions	125

8.	Survivors	126
	I'm All Alone in the World With My Kids: Mona	127
	All the Kids Ran Away: Veronica	131
	College Bound: Derek	136
	You Can Be Homeless at Home: David	139
	Joseph Rogers	145
	Epilogue	147
	Discussion	148
9.	Through the Camera's Lens	150
	Spots and Education	151
	Documentaries	152
	Commercial Movies	157
	Discussion	159
Part III: Responses		163
	The Area	164
	The City	165
10.	Programs for Unaccompanied Youth and Families	167
	History of Services to Unaccompanied Youth	167
	History of Programs for Families	172
	Programs	173
	Unmet and Pressing Needs	177
11.	Societal Responses to Homelessness	180
	Background	181
	American Responses	181
	New York and New Jersey	186
	Southeast Pennsylvania	187
	Other Developments	193
	National Nongovernmental Organizations	200
	Alternative Systems	202
	Summary	205
	Conclusions	206
Part IV: Where to From Here?		209
12.	Conclusions	211
	Situation	212

Levels of Prevention	214
Research Directions	221
Action Needed	222
Summary	222
Concluding Discussion	223
References	227
Additional Readings	233
Film and Video Resources	234
Index	236
About the Author	247