Contents

Preface xi

Chapter 1
American Health Care Reform: Separating Sense from Nonsense 1

with Mark Goldberg

Part I
MEDICAL CARE POLITICS: CONSTRAINTS ON REFORM 19

Chapter 2
How We Got to Where We Are: American Health Care Politics, 1970 to 1990 21

Chapter 3
Medical Care Crises and the Welfare State 31
Chapter 4
Nonprofit Organizations and Health Care  48
with Mark Schlesinger and Richard W. Smithey

Chapter 5
Cutting Waste by Making Rules: Promises, Pitfalls, and Realistic Prospects  86 with Jan Blustein

Chapter 6
Rationing: Painful Prescription, Inadequate Diagnosis  107
with Rudolf Klein

Part II
THE DEBATE OVER UNIVERSAL HEALTH INSURANCE  121

Chapter 7
American Medical Care Reform: Are We Doomed to Fail?  123
with David Boyum

Chapter 8
Reflections on the Argument for Competition in Medical Care  139
with David Boyum

Chapter 9
The Case for Straightforward Reform  146
with Carlos Cano

Chapter 10
with Tom Hamburger
Chapter 11
Hype and Hyperbole in Health Reform  170
with Jerry Mashaw

Part III
COMPARATIVE PERSPECTIVES  177

Chapter 12
Patterns of Fact and Fiction in Use of the Canadian Experience  179

Chapter 13
Japan—A Sobering Lesson  195

Part IV
POLICY CHOICES: DILEMMAS AND DECISIONS  203

Chapter 14
Coalition or Collision? Medicare and Health Reform  205

Chapter 15
Implementation: Making Reform Work  215

Notes  225
Glossary  255
Index  271