CONTENTS

Acknowledgments

INTRODUCTION: CRITIQUE OF THE ENLIGHTENMENT AND RETURN TO CLASSICAL ANTIQUITY

CHAPTER 1 KARL MARX: ATHENIAN DEMOCRACY AND THE CRITIQUE OF POLITICAL ECONOMY

Science and Nature in Democritus and Epicurus, 17
Nature, Praxis, and Social Objectivity, 22
Classical Needs and Neoclassical Aesthetics, 25
Ancient and Modern Democracy, 34
Greek Social Justice and Political Economy in Capital, 42
Rationalization of Production and the Logic of Capital, 47
Greek Physics and Marx’s Dialectical Science, 51
Classical Antiquity and the Ancient Mode of Production, 59

CHAPTER 2 MAX WEBER: GREEK TRAGEDY AND THE RATIONALIZATION OF SOCIETY

Classical Antiquity and Ancient Capitalism, 67
Capitalism and Democracy in the Greek Polis, 72
Decline of the Roman Empire and the Rise of Modern Capitalism, 75
Nietzsche and the Origins of Greek Tragedy, 79
Existential Nihilism and the Perspectivism of Science, 85
History of Western Science from Plato to the Present, 88
Prophets of Positivism and the Politics of Science, 92
Rationalization and the Eclipse of Reason, 99
Classical Humanism and Historical Economics, 103
CHAPTER 3  EMILE DURKHEIM: GREEK POLIS AND THE SOLIDARITY OF THE CONSCIENCE COLLECTIVE

Aristotle, Montesquieu, and the Foundations of Sociology, 113
Origins of Society in Rousseau and Aristotle, 118
Epistemology and Existentialism in Kant and Schopenhauer, 121
Platonic Rationalism and the Sophistry of Pragmatism, 124
Collective Representations as Social Epistemology, 131
Hellenic Solidarity and Modern Anomie, 138
Classical Pedagogy and Modern Politics, 147
Classical Justice Informing Social Democracy, 150

CHAPTER 4  AWAKENING CLASSICAL DREAMS: SYNTHESIS OF ANCIENT JUSTICE AND MODERN SOCIAL SCIENCE

Notes

Index