

1 Sociology and Sport 1

Looking Differently at Sport 1

The Sociological Imagination and Sport 1

POINT-COUNTERPOINT: Do Common Sense and Personal Experience Tell Us All We Need to Know About Sport? 2

Sport as a Mirror of Society 3

Sport as a Social Phenomenon 3

The Development of Sport Sociology 6

Sport Sociology and Related Disciplines 6

Sociological Analysis of Sport 7

Traditional Theoretical Directions in Contemporary Sport Sociology 8

Structural-Functional Analysis 9

Conflict Theory 10

Symbolic Interactionism 11

Recent Theoretical Directions in Sport Sociology 13

Cross-Cultural, Cross-National, and International Perspectives 15

Outline of the Book 16

SUMMARY 17

2 The Social Development of Modern Sport 18

Early Sport 18

The Evolution of Modern Sport 20

The Civilizing Process and the Development of Modern Sport: The Case of British Football 21

POINT-COUNTERPOINT: Is Sport More Civilized Now than in the Past? 22

Industrialization and the Development of Modern Sport 24

ents

Transportation 24

Equipment and Facilities 25

Communication 25

POINT-COUNTERPOINT: Did Lights Ruin
Baseball at Wrigley Field? 27

POINT-COUNTERPOINT: Does Artificial Turf
Belong in Sport? 27

Urbanization and the Development of Modern
Sport 27

Bureaucracy, Rationality, and Modern Sport 28

Science, Rationality, and Modern Sport 30

POINT-COUNTERPOINT: Has Science
Improved Sport? 31

The Political Economy of Modern Corporate
Sport 32

Television and Modern Sports 33

SPECIAL FOCUS: Making a TV Spectacle of Sport
35

Conclusion 37

SUMMARY 38

3 Culture, The Meaning of Sport, and Fans 39

Distinguishing Culture from Society 39

The Relationship of Sport to Culture 39

Sport and American Cultural Values 40

American Values and the American Dream 40

The American Dream and the Dominant
American Sports Creed 41

Competition, Winning, and Success in Sport 42

POINT-COUNTERPOINT: Is Winning the Most Important Thing in Sport? 43

SPECIAL FOCUS: Butch Ross, Jim Ryun, and the Burdens of Losing 44

Sports Heroes, Success Themes, and Changing
American Cultural Values 45

Cultural Heroes, Sport, and the Quest for a National Culture 46POINT-COUNTERPOINT: Does the Public Need Sports Heroes? 47National Pastimes and Mythic Spectacles of Sport 47*The Modern World Sport System and Cultural Differences 48*Sport, Social Differences, and Cultural Struggle 50*The Americanization of Global Sport 51*SPECIAL FOCUS: Cultural Resistance in Dominican Baseball 53Sports Fans and the Cultural Meaning of Sport 54*Is Sport Losing Its Special Place in American Culture? 54*SPECIAL FOCUS: BIRGing AND CORFing 55Sport as a Symbolic Refuge 55*The Degradation of American Sport 56*Conclusion 58*SUMMARY 59*4 Religion and Sport 60*Relationships between Sport and Religion 60*The Nature and Functions of Religion 62*Social Functions of Religion 62*Sport as Religion 63*Sport, Religion, and Morality 66*Sport as Folk Religion 66*POINT-COUNTERPOINT: Does Religion Make Athletes More Moral? 67Uses of Sport by Religion 68*Sportianity 69*Born-Again Athletes 72*Management Reactions to Sportianity in the Locker Room 72*Religion in Sport 73*Prayer 73

POINT-COUNTERPOINT: Does Prayer Belong
in the Locker Room? 74

Magic and Superstition 75

SPECIAL FOCUS: Superstitious Practices in Sport
76

Conclusion 77

SUMMARY 77

5 Socialization and Sport 78

Introduction 78

Theories of Socialization 79

Social Learning Theory and Role Learning 79

POINT-COUNTERPOINT: Are Athletes Good
Role Models? 80

Conflict Interpretation of Socialization 80

Interactionist Interpretation of Socialization 81

SPECIAL FOCUS: Play and Games in Mead's
Socialization Theory 82

Socialization into Sport 83

Socialization through Sport 87

Learning Gender Roles Through Sport 88

POINT-COUNTERPOINT: Does Sport Build
Character? 89

Aversive Socialization in Youth Sport 90

Dropping Out of Sport 91

SPECIAL FOCUS: The Little League Syndrome 92

SPECIAL FOCUS: What Kids Want and Do Not Want from Sports 93

Professionalization Model 94

Criticisms of Youth Sport 95

Conclusion 97

SUMMARY 98

6 Social Deviance, Social Problems, and Sport 99

The Nature of Social Deviance and Social Problems 99

Explanations of Social Deviance and Social Problems 100

Interpersonal Sources of Social Deviance 100

Social Deviance as Anomie 100

Conflict and Critical Perspectives 101

Societal Reaction Labeling Perspectives 102

Positive Deviance and the Sport Ethic 103

Pain, Injury, and Risk Taking as Positive Deviance 104

POINT-COUNTERPOINT: Are Taking Risks and Playing Hurt Rational for Athletes? 105

Major Problems of Social Deviance in Sport 106

Player Violence 106

Fan Violence 109

Crime and Sport 111

POINT-COUNTERPOINT: Does Televised Sports Violence Make It Harder for Us to See Violence as Real? 111

Gambling 113

POINT-COUNTERPOINT: Would the Legalization of All U.S. Sports Gambling Be Harmful for Sport and the Society? 114

SPECIAL FOCUS: The Pathology of Compulsive Gambling 116

Drugs and Sport 116

SPECIAL FOCUS: Doping in German Sports 119

POINT-COUNTERPOINT: Should Athletes Be Permitted to Use Performance-Enhancing Drugs? 120

Conclusion 120

SUMMARY 121

7 High School Athletics 122

Friday Night Lights 122

Media Images of Interscholastic Sports in the United States 122

Major Issues and Problems in American Interscholastic Athletics 124

POINT-COUNTERPOINT: Is Specialization a Positive Trend for Athletes and Coaches in High School Athletics? 125

- Interscholastic Athletics and American Educational Values 125
- Interscholastic Athletics, Academics, and Educational Aspirations 126
- SPECIAL FOCUS: Reinterpreting The Adolescent Society 127
- Interscholastic Athletics, Psychosocial Benefits, and Socialization 128
- The High School Coach 129
- POINT-COUNTERPOINT: Do the Benefits of Athletic Participation Justify Public Investment in High School Sports Programs? 130
- High School Football and Lessons of Democracy 131
- POINT-COUNTERPOINT: Do High School Athletes Benefit from Participation in Choosing the Starting Lineup and Substitutes? 132
- A Comparative Focus on Interscholastic Athletics 133
- The Effects of High School Athletics on Minority-Group Status and Integration 134
- Language-Group Differences in Sports Participation in Canada 134
- Elite Secondary School Sports Participation and the Achievement or Maintenance of Elite Status 136
- High School Athletics and Intergroup Relations 137
- SPECIAL FOCUS: Ethnic Resistance to the Dominant Cultural and Social Rituals in Texas High School Football 137
- SPECIAL FOCUS: Gender Relations and Texas High School Football 138
- High School Athletics and the Cultural and Social Assimilation of Immigrant Minority Groups 139
- Conclusion 140
- SUMMARY 141
- 8 College Athletics 142
-
- Beyond Innocence about College Athletics 142
- The Origin and Development of U.S. College Athletics 142

Conclusion: A Final Assessment of Race and Sport 248

SUMMARY 249

13 Gender Relations and Sport 250

Sport, Gender, and Social Change 250

POINT-COUNTERPOINT: Do Females Benefit from Playing Traditionally Male Sports? 251

Gender Stratification of Society 251

Sport as a Male Preserve 252

SPECIAL FOCUS: Sport as a Masculine Initiation Rite 253

Sport, Gender Assessments, and Homophobia 254

POINT-COUNTERPOINT: Does the Public Care More About the Sexual Orientation of Female than Male Athletes? 256

Barriers and Progress for Females in Sport 257

Cultural Myths and Realities of Female Sports Participation 257

Mass Media Images of Gender in Sport: From Invisibility to Ambivalence 260

SPECIAL FOCUS: Biases in the Newspaper Sports Department 262

Structural and Psychosocial Barriers and Changes 263

Women in Sports Leadership Positions 263

Residual Sexism in Sport 266

Title IX and the Gender-Equity Debate 266

SPECIAL FOCUS: Sexism in Names of College Sports Teams 267

POINT-COUNTERPOINT: Can College Athletics Survive Gender Equity? 268

Cross-Cultural Patterns of Women in Sport 268

Conclusion: After the Revolution in U.S. Women's Sports? 270

SPECIAL FOCUS: Eating Disorders and Female Athletes 271

SUMMARY 272

14 Sport, Politics, and the Olympics 273

Sport and Political Realities 273

Sport and Government in America 273

SPECIAL FOCUS: College Athletics, Monopoly, and the Law 275

POINT-COUNTERPOINT: Should Governments Be Involved in Sport? 276

The Role of Sport in International Relations 276

POINT-COUNTERPOINT: Should Sport Be Used for Political Purposes in International Relations? 279

Neocolonialism Through Sport 280

The Role of Sport in National Development 282

The Role of Sport in the Restructuring of Eastern Europe, the USSR, and South Africa 285

Russia and the Former Soviet Union 286

SPECIAL FOCUS: The Future of Sport in the Former Soviet States 287

South Africa 288

The Political Economy of the Olympics 289

SPECIAL FOCUS: The Nazi Olympics 290

The 1984 Capitalist Games 291

POINT-COUNTERPOINT: Would the Olympics Suffer from the Elimination of All References to National Affiliation? 293

Conclusion: The New World Order in Sport 294

SUMMARY 295

Appendix: Science and Research Methods in Sport Sociology 297

The Scientific Method in Sport Sociology 297

Research Methods in Sport Sociology 299

Surveys 299

Observational Studies 300

Experiments 300

Secondary Data Analysis 301

Model of the Research Process 302

Quantitative and Qualitative Research 302

Basic, Applied, and Evaluation Research 303

Glossary of Key Terms	305
Bibliography	316
Index	345

The Role of the NCAA in College Athletics Today 145

SPECIAL FOCUS: The NCAA as a Cartel 146

The NCAA and Women's Intercollegiate Athletics 147

Corporate Athleticism and Athletic Department Deviance 149

POINT-COUNTERPOINT: Should College Athletes Be Paid? 151

College Coaches 153

POINT-COUNTERPOINT: Should College Coaches Be Tenured? 155

Athletics and Academics in Higher Education 156

Proposition 48, Proposition 42, and Proposition 56 157

POINT-COUNTERPOINT: Should Academic Standards be Reduced for Athletes? 159

Cycles of Reform Efforts in College Athletics 160

New Reform Recommendations 162

SPECIAL FOCUS: A Radical Reform Proposal 163

Conclusion 164

SUMMARY 165

9 The Professional Sports Business 167

The Paradox of Professional Sports 167

The Development of Modern Professional Sports: The Case of Basketball 168

The Financial Status and Future of Professional Sports 172

POINT-COUNTERPOINT: Are Professional Athletes Overpaid? 174

The Political Economy of Professional Sport and the Law 175

POINT-COUNTERPOINT: Are Professional Sports Leagues Sufficiently Different from Other Businesses to Warrant Their Exemption from Antitrust Laws? 177

Social Consequences of Professional Sports Monopolies 177

Sports Monopolies, Public Subsidies, and the Public Interest 178

Sports Franchises and Community Development 178

SPECIAL FOCUS: Local Subsidies of Professional Sports Franchises 179

SPECIAL FOCUS: The Political Economy of Major League Baseball in Colorado 181

POINT-COUNTERPOINT: Do Professional Sports Franchises Benefit Local Communities? 182

The Global Expansion of North American Professional Sport 182

SPECIAL FOCUS: American Football in England and Europe 183

Conclusion 186

SUMMARY 187

10 Owners, Athletes, and Fans in Professional Sport 188

Professional Sports Roles and Modern Realities 188

Ownership Patterns and Profits in Professional Sports 188

Labor-Management Relations in Professional Sports 192

POINT-COUNTERPOINT: Are Unions, Strikes, and Agents Good for Professional Sports? 194

Agents, the Law, and Economics 194

Professional Sports and the Fans 195

Social Aspects of the Careers of Professional Athletes 197

Life on the Run 197

Origins and Occupational Experiences of Professional Athletes: The Case of Professional Football 197

Uncertainty and Insecurity in Professional Athletic Careers 199

Professional Sports Careers and Marriage 199

Professional Sports Retirement 200

SPECIAL FOCUS: Athletes and Domestic Abuse 201

Retirement, Injuries, and Disability 201

Retirement and Failure 203

POINT-COUNTERPOINT: Is a Professional Sports Career the Best Possible Career Choice for Young Athletes? 204

Conclusion 205

SUMMARY 205

11 Social Class, Status, and Leisure Sports Participation 206

Leisure Physical Activity in America 206

Social Stratification, Sport, and Leisure 206

Class, Status, and Leisure Sports 207

SPECIAL FOCUS: Class and Status in Leisure Sports Across Nations 208

Segregation or Democratization in Leisure Sports? 208

SPECIAL FOCUS: Golf, Democratization, and Social Inequality 210

The Leisure Class and the Limits of Democratization 211

Leisure Sports Subcultures 211

POINT-COUNTERPOINT: Have We Become a Leisure-Oriented Society? 212

SPECIAL FOCUS: The Development of the Surfing Subculture as a Social Scene 213

SPECIAL FOCUS: Running as Serious Leisure 214

Identity and Obsession in Leisure Sports Subcultures 215

Identity, Masculinity, and "Prole" Sports Subcultures 215

Identity and Risk in Sport Subcultures 216

POINT-COUNTERPOINT: Are People in High-Risk Sports Crazy? 218

Status, Competition, and Cooperation in Leisure Sports Subcultures 218

Sport in Special Populations: Disabled and Elderly Athletes 222

Disability and Sport 222

POINT-COUNTERPOINT: Do Wheelchair Racers Belong in the Same Race as Able-Bodied Road Racers? 224

Older Athletes 224

Conclusion 225

SUMMARY 226

12 Race Relations and Sport 227

Racial Stratification in the United States 227

SPECIAL FOCUS: Restaurants, Racism, and The NFL 228

Historical Patterns of Blacks in Sport in the United States 228

The First Three Historical Stages: Exclusion-Inclusion-Exclusion 228

Public Reactions to Black Athletes in a Changing Society 231

Stage 4: The Post-World War II Era of Black Opportunity 232

SPECIAL FOCUS: Branch Rickey's Great Experiment 233

Black Sports and White Sports 234

Black Sports Achievement and Success in the United States 236

SPECIAL FOCUS: Black Superstars and White Attitudes 237

The Almost Forgotten Black Woman in Sport 237

POINT-COUNTERPOINT: Do Blacks Have a Natural Athletic Advantage over Whites? 238

Residual Racism in Men's Sports in the United States 240

Al Campanis and Report Cards of Racial Progress 240

Stacking Patterns 242

Explanations and Implications of Stacking 242

SPECIAL FOCUS: Stacking in Canadian Sports 243

Other Forms of Residual Racism in American Sports 245

POINT-COUNTERPOINT: Does the Relative Absence of Black Quarterbacks, Pitchers, and Catchers in Professional Sports Reflect Racism? 246

SPECIAL FOCUS: Apartheid Sport in South Africa 247