

Contents

| | |
|---|-----|
| PREFACE | vii |
| INTRODUCTION | ix |
| 1 THE ORIGINS OF COMPETITIVE MARKET THEORY | |
| From Bernard Mandeville to Adam Smith | 1 |
| John Locke and Acquisitive Individualism | 6 |
| Capitalism: Dispossession and Control | 11 |
| Industrialisation and the Loss of Independence | 16 |
| Mechanisation Gives Ricardo Second Thoughts | 18 |
| The Marginalist Reaction | 23 |
| The Keynesian Revision | 29 |
| 2 CORPORATE OLIGOPOLY | |
| The Decline of Individual Economic Activity | 33 |
| Transnational Corporations | 39 |
| Domestic Oligopoly | 42 |
| Oligopoly in Japan | 45 |
| Oligopolies and Market Theory | 50 |
| A Note on Oligopoly in the British Columbia Forest Industry | 55 |
| 3 CORPORATE HIERARCHY | |
| Hierarchies of Wealth | 60 |
| The Management of Labour | 65 |
| The Japanese Work Group | 70 |
| Theories of a Managerial Revolution and of Contending Elites | 72 |
| The Managerial Elite in Japan | 77 |
| The Social Consequences of Private Power | 80 |
| Corporate Militarism | 84 |
| Militarism and Oil | 88 |
| Militarism at Home | 92 |

| | |
|---|-----|
| 4 THE POLITICAL POWER OF THE OLIGARCHY | |
| Wealthowners and Politicians | 95 |
| The Neoconservative Reaction | 101 |
| Thatcher and Reagan | 110 |
| Deregulation and Fraud | 115 |
| Brian Mulroney | 118 |
| 5 GLOBALISM | |
| International Shipping | 122 |
| Mexico | 125 |
| The IMF and the Myth of Comparative Advantage | 129 |
| The Case for Protection | 135 |
| A Note on New Zealand | 140 |
| EPILOGUE | |
| Did Keynesianism Fail? | 145 |
| Is there an Alternative? | 152 |
| Economic Democracy | 158 |
| Beyond Capitalism | 163 |
| SOURCES AND FURTHER READING | 167 |
| INDEX | 183 |