

| CONTENTS |

Acknowledgments xi

Preface: We Speak for Ourselves: The Struggle of Kettleman City 1

Introduction 10

ONE

A History of the Environmental Justice Movement 19

TWO

The Political Economy of Environmental Racism: Chester Residents
Concerned for Quality of Life 34

THREE

Environmental Racism: Beyond the Distributive Paradigm 54

FOUR

Buttonwillow: Resistance and Disillusion in Rural California 80

FIVE

Processes of Struggle: Grassroots Resistance and the Structure of Environmental Decision Making 103

SIX

In Defense of Mother Earth: The Indigenous Environmental Network 134

SEVEN

Transformative Politics 151

Appendix 167

Notes 185

Index 231

About the Authors 244