

Contents

Acknowledgments	ix
Introduction	1

MOTHERS, FAMILY, AND SURVIVAL

1	From a Lineage of Southern Women She Has Left Us Empty and Full of Her Angelita Reyes	15
2	"You Don't Live Just For Yourselves" Stories from a Chinese Woman in Atlanta Jianli Zhao	31
3	More than a Mother Some Tewa Women Reflect on Gia Nancy Greenman	49

TRANSFORMATION AND CHANGE

4	"I Know Who I Am" The Collaborative Life History of a Shoshone Indian Woman Sally McBeth and Esther Burnett Horne	71
5	The Multiple and Transformatory Identities of Puerto Rican Women in the U.S. Reconstructing the Discourse on National Identity Celia Alvarez	87
6	"I Have a Frog in My Stomach" Mythology and Truth in Life History Janneli F. Miller	103

LANGUAGE, HISTORY, AND CULTURE

- 7 "Tryin' to Make Ends Meet"
African American Women's Work on Brooks Farm, 1920–1970 123
Valerie Grim
- 8 "Comrade Sisters"
Two Women of the Black Panther Party 139
Madalynn C. Rucker and JoNina Abron
- 9 From the Inside Out
*Survival and Continuity in African American Women's
Oral Narratives* 169
Gwendolyn Etter-Lewis

INSIDERS AND OUTSIDERS

- 10 Hands in the Chit'lins
*Notes on Native Anthropological Research among
African American Women* 183
Linda Williamson Nelson
- 11 An Anthropological Approach to Cambodian Refugee Women 201
Reciprocity in Oral Histories
Lance Rasbridge
- 12 Like Us But Not One of Us
Reflections on a Life History Study of African American Teachers 215
Michèle Foster
- Contributors 225
- Index 229