

CONTENTS

Preface	9
----------------	---

PART ONE THE GLOBAL APPROACH TO MARKETING

1 The nature of international marketing	13
Introduction to international marketing; Reasons for marketing abroad; Exporting; Exporting intermediaries; Benefits and problems of exporting
2 The environments of international marketing	25
Introduction; The economic and political environment; The cultural environment; Legal aspects of international marketing
3 International marketing research	37
Introduction; Information needs; The marketing information system; The research programme; Market research in the Third World; Organising research
4 Market screening and segmentation	50
Choosing markets; Collecting information; Market segmentation
5 Entering foreign markets	59
Introduction; Agents and distributors; Licensing and franchising; Branches and subsidiaries; Foreign manufacturing; Joint ventures; Human resource aspects
6 Organising for international marketing	88
The process of internationalisation; The international business; The multinational company; Organisation of MNCs; Selecting the best structure
7 International trade and the balance of payments	108
The balance of payments; Barriers to international trade; The General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade; Countertrade
8 Export methods and procedures	120
Transport; Documenting a consignment; Cargo insurance; Customs declarations; Credit insurance; Finance of foreign trade; Factoring and forfaiting; Appendix – the export plan

9	Regional analysis of world markets	145
	Regional economic groupings; Marketing in the Third World; Selling to the Third World; Why sell to the Third World?
10	The Americas	155
	NAFTA; The USA; Mexico; Canada; Latin America
11	China, Southern Asia and the Pacific Rim	175
	China; The Indian subcontinent; The Pacific Rim
12	Japan and Oceania	193
	Japan; Doing business in Japan; Oceania
13	Africa and the Middle East	210
	Africa; Important African countries; The Middle East; Doing business in the Arab Middle East; Important Middle Eastern countries
14	Europe	226
	West European integration; The West European market; Marketing in the new Europe; East European disintegration; East European markets; Prospects for business in East Europe

PART THREE POLICIES AND ISSUES IN INTERNATIONAL MARKETING

15	International product policy	247
	Nature of international product policy; Product positioning; Time-based competition; Standardisation versus modification of products; New product development for international markets; Packaging; Customer care; Trade marks and branding; Counterfeiting; Appendix – international product lifecycles
16	International pricing	277
	Introduction; International pricing approaches; The research task; INCOTERMS; Foreign exchange considerations; Price discrimination and parallel exporting; Predatory pricing; Dumping; Transfer pricing
17	International advertising	292
	Nature of international advertising; Standardisation versus customisation of promotional messages; The international advertising agency; Regulation of advertising; International media planning; The advertising budget
18	International below-the-line promotions and business-to-business campaigns	314
	International public relations; International direct marketing; International sales promotions; Business-to-business campaigns; Exhibiting

19	Strategy, planning and the control of international marketing activities	330
	Strategy; Competitive advantage; Investment in products and markets; International marketing planning; Control and coordination
	References and bibliography	351
	Guide to further reading	359
	Index	361