Contents

vii Foreword
John Woodward

ix Notes on Contributors

1 Medicine, Law and Human Rights
John Woodward

11 Victims and Experts: Medical Practitioners and the Spanish Inquisition
José Pardo-Tomás & Alvar Martínez-Vidal

29 No Law, No Rights? Autopsy in Germany since 1800
Cay-Rüdiger Prüll

55 Vacher the Ripper and the Construction of the Nineteenth-Century Sadist
Angus McLaren

75 Prosecution and Popularity: the Case of the Dutch Sequah, 1891—1893
Willem de Blécourt

91 Female Voices in Male Courtrooms – Abortion Trials in Weimar Germany
Cornelie Usborne

107 ‘For their own good’: Drug Testing in Liverpool, West and East Africa, 1917—1938
Helen Power

127 Law, Medicine and Morality: A Comparative View of Twentieth-Century Sexually Transmitted Disease Controls
Roger Davidson & Lutz D.H. Sauerteig