

CONTENTS

---

Preface	v
Acknowledgments	ix
CHAPTER 1	THE CORPORATE WEB: LIFE AND DEATH IN THE BUSINESS WORLD	1
	The Corporate Safe House	6
	The Imitation Family	7
	Rules of the Game	10
	How the Corporation Controls	12
	How the Individual Reacts	18
	Endnotes	25
CHAPTER 2	LIGHT AT THE END OF THE TUNNEL: TRANSITION TO RECOVERY	27
	Signposts of Danger	31
	Learn to Know Yourself	38
	Reevaluating Moral Values	47
	Support Groups	50
	Beginning the Journey	52
	Endnotes	52
CHAPTER 3	OUT OF THE FIRE: THE ROAD BACK TO SANITY	53
	It's Time to Change	55
	The Need to Love and Be Loved	58
	A Reordering of Priorities	61
	Family Support	63
	Support from Friends	68
	Broadened Horizons	72
	New Goals	73
	Options for a New Life	74
	Endnotes	77

CHAPTER 4	I'LL STAY WHERE I AM: ADAPTING TO CORPORATE LIFE	78
	The Risk of Change	81
	Financial Independence	89
	A Fall-Back Position	93
	Endnotes	96
CHAPTER 5	A NEW EXECUTIVE: CHANGING BEHAVIOR PATTERNS IN THE CORPORATION	97
	Personal Behavior	98
	Behavior Toward Others	102
	Handling the Imitation Family	110
	Moral Growth	113
	Can You Make It?	115
CHAPTER 6	ANOTHER CHANCE: MATCHING A NEW COMPANY WITH A NEW PERSON	117
	The Start-Over Attitude	119
	Signposts and Danger Signals	120
	A People-Oriented Philosophy	124
	Individuality and Creativity	126
	Small or Large	127
	A New Industry	129
	Finding the Right Job	130
	Synergistic Values	135
	The Eight-Step Search	137
	Endnotes	138
CHAPTER 7	A FORK IN THE ROAD: A MID-LIFE CAREER CHANGE	139
	Is a Career Change for You?	140
	Psychological Compatibility	142
	Philosophical Symmetry	144
	Social Acceptability	145
	Financial Considerations	146
	Some New Career Possibilities	147
	How to Get Started	156
	Endnotes	158
CHAPTER 8	THE SOOTHSAYER: STARTING A MANAGEMENT CONSULTING PRACTICE	159
	What Can You Sell?	161
	Where is the Market?	163

Personal Characteristics	165
Help for the Recovering Executive	169
Hazards of Consulting	170
How to Get Started in Consulting	173
Endnotes	179

CHAPTER 9	TO CHASE A DREAM: FRANCHISING AND STARTING A BUSINESS	180
	Psychological Considerations	180
	Financial Risk	184
	Support of Family and Friends	185
	How to Start a Business	186
	A Franchise as an Alternative	199

CHAPTER 10	FAST ACTION, QUICK CASH: BUYING A GOING BUSINESS	205
	The Stress Factor	207
	The Hazards of Power	208
	The Rules of Acquisition	212
	The Strategic Plan	218
	Timing	221
	The Target Search	221
	Due Diligence Investigation and Negotiations	224
	Financing the Deal	226
	The Legal Side	231

CHAPTER 11	OUT OF THE MAINSTREAM: ENJOYING A PRODUCTIVE RETIREMENT	233
	Psychological Disorientation	236
	Changing Family Relationships	240
	Fear of Financial Catastrophe	240
	Psychosomatic Health Problems	242
	Self-Discipline and Structure	243
	Income-Producing Retirement Vocations	244
	Cantankerous Charlie and the Cormorant	248
	Support Groups	250
	Endnotes	251

CHAPTER 12	ENTREPRENEURIAL BETRAYAL: A RECOVERY PROGRAM FOR THE BUSINESS OWNER	252
	The Trigger	254
	The Recovery Process	257
	The Second Stage	260
	The Final Stage: Changing Life-Styles	263

EPILOGUE	272
A New Tomorrow	272
Some Unanswered Questions	273
Endnote	275
BIBLIOGRAPHY	276
APPENDIXES	281
A Acquisition Business Plan	283
B Investment Banks and Venture Capital Firms	285
C Asset Based Lenders	291
D Letter of Intent	292
E Confidentiality Agreement	294
F Merger and Acquisition Consultants and Larger Business Brokers	296
G Volunteer and Other Social Services Organizations	299
H Personal Statements of Financial Condition	301
I Guidelines for Daily Living from Symposium on Community Practice	305
INDEX	307