

Contents

General Survey

Part 1
Origins and Development of Integral Federalism	_____	24
Part 2
Philosophical Bases of Integral Federalism	_____	245
Part 3
Integral Federalism's Ideas relating to National Policy	_____	329
Part 4
Economy and Society – the Model of Integral Federalism	_____	423
Index	_____	555

III. Retreat and Reflexion – The Deepening of the Doctrine of Integral Federalism	170
1. Prefederalistic roots in the French labour movement and federalism in the post-war period	171
2. "Principles of federalism" – the first total presentation of the integral federalistic doctrine	180
3. Analysis of the "global crisis" as the spiritual basis of the integral federalistic doctrine	192
4. Precisioning and differentiation of the integral federalistic doctrine	199
5. Rudiments of an integral federalistic perception theory and its application to the analysis of the "global crisis"	207
6. European unification – integral federalistic strategy and tactics	213
7. "Integral Federalism" – progress of the deepening process	216
8. European federation – the institutions	218
9. Humane economy – beginnings of an integral federalistic economic theory	218
10. "Dialectic of liberation" – progress of the philosophical foundation of integral federalism	219
11. "Federalism, totalitarianism, particularism" – beginnings of an integral federalistic theory of political systems	221
12. "Democracy and participation" – beginnings of a constitutional basis of integral federalism	224
13. "Economic and social perspectives of federalism" – further development of the rudiments of an integral federalistic economic theory	227
14. The "Federalistic Charter" – testimony of a comprehensive and coherent integral federalistic doctrine	233
15. 1964-1969 – from the "Federalistic Charter" to the "Federalistic Manifesto"	236
Part 2: Philosophical Bases of Integral Federalism	245
Chapter 1: The Global Crisis – Starting Point of the Doctrine of Integral Federalism	247
I. Manifestations of the Global Crisis	247
II. Causes and Beginning of the Global Crisis	249
III. Systematic Understanding of the Global Crisis – Prerequisite for Overcoming it	252
Chapter 2: Integral Federalistic Methodology – Instrument for the Systematic Understanding of the Global Crisis	254
I. The Integral Federalistic Concept of Methodology	254
II. The Role of Models in Integral Federalistic Methodology	256

Table of Contents

Preface by Alexandre Marc _____	57
Introduction _____	15
Part I: Origins and Development of Integral Federalism _____	24
Chapter 1: Pierre-Joseph Proudhon _____	27
I. Proudhon's Dialectic Thinking _____	28
II. Proudhon's Mutualism _____	32
1. The mutualistic contract _____	33
2. Mutualism in economy and society _____	37
41	41
III. Proudhon's Federalism _____	42
1. Liberty and authority – the problem of political power _____	42
2. Cité fédéraliste (I) – the federalistically organised community _____	47
3. Cité fédéraliste (II) – a federalistically structured Europe _____	55
Chapter 2: The Group "Ordre Nouveau" _____	60
I. Origin, Development, End _____	61
II. The Doctrine of the "Ordre Nouveau" _____	64
1. Criticism of the European political systems in the period between the wars _____	65
2. Philosophical principles of the doctrine of the "Ordre Nouveau" _____	73
the "Ordre Nouveau's" idea about revolution 73 – individual and community 77 – the dichotomous method of thinking and acting 80 – the federalism of the "Ordre Nouveau" 84
3. The political ideas of the "Ordre Nouveau" _____	92
regeneration of economy and society 93 – the "Ordre Nouveau's" legal ideas 120 – the unification of Europe 127
4. The revolutionary strategy and tactics of the "Ordre Nouveau" _____	130
Chapter 3: Second World-War and Post-War Period – The Birth of Integral Federalism _____	132
I. "Libérer et Fédérer" – "Liberate and Federate": Survival in Resistance _____	135
II. Which Europe? – The Influence of Integral Federalism on the European Federalist Movement _____	147

Chapter 3: General Organisational Principles of Integral Federalism	375
I. The Integral Federalistic Idea of Law	375
1. The role of the law in an integral federalistic order of government	375	X
2. The sources of law	377
formal sources 377 – material sources 378
II. The General Organisational Principles	379	X
1. Autonomy	380
self-assertion 381 – self-definition 382 – self-determination 383 – self-organisation 383 – self-administration 385 – financial autonomy 385 – the execution of autonomy 385 – limits to autonomy 386
2. Exact adequation (exacte adéquation)	386
3. Participation	391
argumentation for participation 391 – modalities of participation 392
4. Cooperation	393
relational cooperation 394 – institutional cooperation 395
5. Complementarity	395
6. Guarantees	397
guarantees for competences 398 – guarantee for the use of competences 399
Chapter 4: The European Federation as a Model for State Re-Organisation	400	7
I. Federalism, Confederalism and Decentralisation	401
1. Federalism and confederalism	401
the criterion of sovereignty 401 – the criterion of unlimited constituent power 403 – representation and imperative mandate of the state bodies 404 – the criterion of constitutional jurisdiction 405 – the criterion of citizenship 405 – the "supranational" organisation 406		X
2. Federalism and decentralisation	407
II. The European Federation	408	1
1. The members of the European federation	408
the federation of historical states 408 – the federation of economic regions 409 – a federation of monoethnic regions 411
2. The relations between the European federation and its members	413
competences 414 – participation on the various levels of the federation: organs and their functions 415 – commune 415 – region 416 – nation 417 – federation 417
3. The judicative and executive organs of the European federation	419
the judicative 419 – the executive 420

Part 4: Economy and Society – the Model of Integral Federalism	423
Chapter 1: The Global Crisis in Economy and Society	424
Chapter 2: Basic Demands on an Economic System	427
Chapter 3: Liberalism, Collectivism, Dirigism – Merits and Limitations	428
I. Liberalism	428
II. Collectivism	430
III. Dirigism	432
Chapter 4: The Alternative: Economic Federalism	434
I. The Starting Point: Fundamental Anthropology	434
II. Institutionalism as an Economic and Social Principle of Organisation	436
III. Integral Federalistic Economic Law – an Outline	437
IV. Principles of Integral Federalism as Guidelines for Politico-Economic and Socio-Political Thinking and Acting	440
V. The Model of an Integral Federalistic Economic Order	448
1. Key Problems	448
the tension between economic efficacy and human existence 448 – efficacy through subsidiarity 449 – the functional and geographical field 451
2. Functional aspects of economic and social federalism	451
efficacy of production 452 – effectiveness of the distribution of goods through the plants 455 – agricultural problems 458 – efficacy by reducing overall social costs 459 – organisational problems 460 – problems of socialisation 462
3. The problems of planning	464
the raison d'être of planning: the philosophical basis 464 – the principle of bizoning : imperative and indicative planning 467 – planning for what?: aims of planning 471 – praxis of planning: elaboration, execution, effects 472;
excursus: the guaranteed social minimum 479
4. Currency and finances	487
5. Integral federalism and economic geography	491
the problem of regional planning: reasons for the necessity of regional planning 492 – the integral federalistic concept of regional planning 493 – the aims of integral federalistic regional planning 494 – the geographical areas of regional planning 496 – infrastructure and urbanism 498; excursus: regionalism based on fiscal policy 498

Chapter 5: Socio-Political Problems	501
I. Employment	501
II. Reorganisation of the Enterprise	502
III. The Problems of Remuneration	510
IV. Employees and Self-Administration of Enterprises	512
Chapter 6: Culture and Education	516
I. Civilisation Crisis – Surmounting this on the Basis of Proudhon	516
II. Crisis in the University and its Regeneration	520
III. Teachers – Functions and Training: Outline of a New Pedagogy	524
Conclusion	529
Bibliography	533
List of Abbreviations	549
Epilogue to the Translation	551
Literature (selection)	553
Index	555