

Table of Contents

Part I: THE STRATEGY OF MASS CUSTOMIZATION

On the Economics of Mass Customization..... 3

Gerhard F. Knolmayer

A Procedure for Building Product Models..... 19

Lars Hvam , Jesper Riis, M. Malis, B. Hansen,

Mass Customization Facing Logistics Challenges..... 41

Michael Schenk, Ralph Seelmann-Eggebert

From Mass Production to Mass Customization:
The Impact on Integrated Supply Chains..... 59

Ian Caddy, Mammy Helou, Jim Callan

Key Value Attributes in Mass Customization..... 71

B. L. MacCarthy, P. G. Brabazon, J. Bramham

Part II: PREPARATION AND IMPLEMENTATION

Web Tools for Supporting Mass Customization..... 91

K. J. Aldous, H. R. Nicholls

Manufacturing Planning and Control Content Management in Virtual Enterprises Pursuing Mass Customization..... 103

Claus Rautenstrauch, Holger Taggermann, Klaus Turowski

Customer Interaction and Digitizability – A Structural Approach to Mass Customization.....	119
---	------------

Frank T. Piller

Intermediaries for the Provision of Mass Customized Digital Goods in Electronic Commerce.....	139
--	------------

Juergen Schackmann, Hubert Link

Knowledge Fusion in the Business Information Environment for e-Manufacturing Pursuing Mass Customization.....	153
--	------------

Alexander V. Smirnov, Mikhail Pashkin, Nikolai Chilov, Tatyana Levashova

Experiences of Applying Systematic Modularisation Methods in Light Assembly Industry.....	173
--	------------

Jussi Oesterholm, Reijo Tuokko, Olli Uuttu,

Part III: A VALUE CHAIN

Mass Customization and Beyond – Evolution of Customer Centricity in Financial Services.....	193
--	------------

Robert Winter

Modularity in Three Dimensions: A Study of Mass Customization in the Dutch House Building Industry.....	211
--	------------

Matthijs J. J. Wolters, Erick van Heck, Peter H. M. Vervest

Customization of Capital Goods – Implications for After Sales.....	227
---	------------

Petri Suomala, Matti Sievänen, Jari Paranko

The Authors.....	245
-------------------------	------------