

Contents

1	Introduction	1
2	Descriptive Evidence on Magnitude and Development of Crime in Europe	5
2.1	Data Sources and Problems of Measurement	5
2.2	Crime in its Various Dimensions	7
2.3	Crime and Potential Factors of Crime	21
3	Socio-economic Causes, Interactions and Consequences of Crime	29
3.1	Plan of the Survey	29
3.2	Research on Causes and Interactions of Crime	31
3.2.1	Social Disorganisation Theory	32
3.2.2	Lifestyle / Routine Activity Theory	38
3.2.3	Economic Rational Choice Theory	41
3.2.4	Differential Association / Social Learning Theory	49
3.2.5	Social Control Theory	51
3.2.6	Self-control Theory	53
3.2.7	Strain Theory	55
3.2.8	Interactional Theory	58
3.2.9	Wealth, Economic Growth and Economic System	66
3.2.10	Poverty and Inequality	67
3.2.11	Labour Market	68
3.2.12	Social Security	73
3.2.13	Family	74
3.2.14	Peers and Gangs	75
3.2.15	Social Class	76

3.2.16	Mobility and Community Change	76
3.2.17	Age, Gender and Nationality / Race	77
3.2.18	Urbanity	77
3.2.19	Law Enforcement	78
3.2.20	Private Crime Prevention	79
3.2.21	Media	79
3.2.22	Religion / Religiosity	81
3.2.23	Weather	82
3.3	The Impact of Crime on Economic Performance	82
3.3.1	On the Importance of Bi-Directional Crime Models....	82
3.3.2	Labour Market Outcomes	83
3.3.3	Location Decisions and Crime	87
3.3.4	Costs of Crime	89
3.3.5	Drug Abuse	91
3.3.6	Corruption and Organised Crime	92
3.4	Summary of Crime Related Indicators	93
4	Development of a Methodological Framework for the Empirical Analysis of Crime	97
4.1	The Methodology	97
4.1.1	Criminometrics	97
4.1.2	A Real-World Example Using Data from EU Member States	104
4.2	The Parameterised Model	108
4.2.1	General Framework	108
4.2.2	Construction of Factors of Regional Criminality and of Leading Criminality Indicators	109
4.2.3	Identification of Criminality Indicators of Economic Performance	111
5	Criminometric Results on Causes and Consequences of Crime in Europe	113
5.1	Data Availability	113
5.1.1	Socio-economic Data	114
5.1.2	Crime Data	118
5.2	Empirical Results Based on National Data	124
5.2.1	Causes of Crime	124
5.2.2	The Impact of Crime on Economic Performance	140
5.3	Empirical Results Based on Regional Data	150

5.3.1	Causes of Crime	155
5.3.2	Consequences of Crime	163
6	Conclusions	171
	Results Known from the Scientific Literature	171
	Data and Methods	172
	Causes of Crime	173
	Consequences of Crime	176
	Interpretation of Results, Policy Conclusions	176
	Appendix	179
	References	221