

Contents

	Preface	1
1	India Today and Tomorrow	7
	The Indian economy	7
	Some recent history	9
	Some geography	11
	The weather	12
	Traveling around	13
	Education	14
	The offshoring revolution	16
	PART I WHAT'S THIS OFFSHORING BUSINESS?	19
2	Business Process Offshoring	21
	The initial business drivers	21
	Core and non-core	22
	Revenue distance	23
	Local knowledge	24
	The importance of the process	25
	The incredible shrinking core	26
	IT offshoring	28
	Business process offshoring	29
	Do it yourself or outsource	31
	All or part of the process	35
	Dirty or clean	36
	Data protection	37

3	India and the Global Services Revolution	40
	The Indian IT services industry	41
	The Indian business process outsourcing industry	43
	ITES	45
	Quality	46
	Other countries	49
4	Where to Start	51
	Identifying suitable suppliers or partners	52
	Fact finding in India	53
	The tender process	53
	The Indian company's presentation	55
	Seven criteria for choosing a supplier	57
	Management capability	57
	Alignment with western business practice	59
	Competitive threats	59
	Size	61
	Understanding each other's strategic objectives	63
	Shared objectives	64
	Intention	65
	Summary	66
	Language and communication	66
	International Indian companies	67
	PART II WELCOME TO INDIA	71
5	Your Arrival	75
	Immigration	75
	Currency exchange	77
	Lakhs and crores	77
	From airport to hotel	78
	Tipping – and begging	82
	Hotels and other experiences	84
	The phone system	85
	Settling down for your first night	87

6	Preparing for Day One	89
	Dress code	89
	Eating...	91
	...and drinking	93
	An introduction to names	94
	Hierarchy	97
	The family	99
	Sexual equality	100
	Religion and religious observance	101
7	Getting Around	103
	Taxis, taxi drivers, and private hire	103
	Walking in India	106
	Elevators and personal space	108
	Place names	112
	Off you go	114
8	IST – Indian Stretchable Time	115
	Indian Stretchable Time – the full story	116
	Arranging times for meetings	119
	Holidays – national and local, official and unofficial	122
9	Meeting Differences	125
	Traders first and last	127
	Politeness	129
	Yes	129
	Other linguistic traps	131
	Corruption	131
	Management consultancies	133
	Individual insecurity	134
	Understanding each other	135
	Ending the meeting	136
	Making it work in India	137

PART III WHAT'S RIGHT FOR YOU	139
10 Making the Right Decision	141
Assumptions	142
Measurements	143
Financial projection	145
Start-up costs	145
Hidden costs	147
Social costs and development benefits	151
Return on investment	152
Cost avoidance	152
Contingency, disaster recovery, and business continuity	154
The pilot	155
Your final plan	156
11 Due Diligence and Avoiding Risks	157
Recognizing rogues	157
Indian civil law	159
The Indian Administrative Service	160
The contract	161
The agreement	162
Exit strategy and risk analysis	163
Account management	164
Company accounts	165
Regulation	166
Public and employee relations	167
Your own team	168
Be prepared	171
12 Negotiations and the Art of Haggling	172
Body language	173
International negotiation styles	175
Negotiations in India	177
Market testing	180
Recognizing when you have a deal	182
The agreement	182

13	The Right Result	184
	Internal expectations	186
	Micro-stepping	187
	Don't manage – monitor	188
	Reporting framework	189
	Account manager	190
	No surprises	191
	Structural difficulties	192
	This isn't working	193
	Staying on track	193
14	Creating Further Advantage	194
	Reexamining what is core	195
	Changing what you do as well	196
	Staff quality	199
	Sweating the assets	202
	The real output	203
	The Indian value add	203
	New directions	205
15	Breaking into the Indian Market	206
	IT and telecommunications	207
	Price sensitivity	209
	Being number one	211
	The scale of the opportunities	211
	Reciprocity	213
16	Corporate Social Responsibility	216
	Your local economy	219
	The wider perspective	221
	The Luddites	223
	References	225
	Bibliography	227
	Useful websites	231