

---

Contents

---

Tables and Figures	vii
Acknowledgements	viii
Contributors	ix
 Introduction
1 Through a Glass Darkly: Intellectuals on Race Phil Cohen	1
 The Postcolonial Debate
2 Europe's Civilising Mission Phil Marfleet	18
3 Occidentalism and its Discontents Couze Venn	37
 Reconstructing the Past
4 Writing the Racialised Self: Ottoman Women Writers and Western Feminism Reina Lewis	63
5 In Darkest England: the Poor, the Crowd and Race in the Nineteenth-century metropolis John Marriott	82
 Refugee Studies
6 An Immigration Offence Patricia Tuitt	101
7 As If Being a Refugee Isn't Hard Enough: the Policy of Exclusion Alice Bloch	111

Cultures of Racism

- 8 'Rights and Wrongs': Youth, Community and Narratives of Racial Violence 131

Les Back and Michael Keith

- 9 'It's Just Not Cricket!' Ethnicity, Division and Imagining
the Other in English Cricket 163

Ian McDonald and Sharda Ugra

Rethinking Multiculturalism

- 0 Old Whine, New Vassals: Are Diaspora and Hybridity
Postmodern Inventions 180

Jayne O. Ifekwunigwe

- 1 It's Your World: Discrepant M/multiculturalisms 205

Barnor Hesse

Postscript

- 2 The Sacred and the Profane 226

Desirée Ntolo

- Appendix: List of CNER Publications 1992–98 236

- Index 238

---

Tables and Figures

---

Tables

7.1	Main reason for living in Newham, by refugee community	119
7.2	Preferred asylum destination, by country of origin	120
7.3	Attendance at social, religious, cultural or political groups, by country of origin	127

Figures

7.1	Immigration status by refugee community	116
7.2	Reason why Britain was the country of asylum	118
7.3	Whether the respondent sees Britain as their home, by immigration status	121
7.4	Main activity before coming to Britain and main activity in Britain	124
7.5	Attendance at a social, religious, cultural or political group, by sex and country of origin	126
8.1	Places that white children do not visit	154
8.2	Places where white children meet with friends	155
8.3	Significant sites on the Isle of Dogs	156
8.4	British National Party leaflet circulating in East London, 1998	157
8.5	'Mosque symbolism': Islamic community centre, West Ferry Road, and a far-right anti-Mosque poster	158
8.6	British National Party posters, Manchester Road, Isle of Dogs, April 1998	159