

---

Contents

Tables and Figures	vii
Acknowledgments	ix
Introduction
By Etzioni: Theory, Research, and Policy David Sciulli	3
1. Frameworks and Findings: Assessing Etzioni's Contributions to Sociology Richard M. Coughlin	13
Part I: The Active Society
2. Economic Action, Social Action, and the Genesis of Values: An Essay on Amitai Etzioni's Contribution to Social Theory Hans Joas	35
3. A Theoretical Framework on the Interaction of Politics and News Media: A Dialogue with Etzioni's The Active Society Edward W. Lehman and Ethna Lehman	51
Part II: Socioeconomics and Communitarianism: Theory
4. Community and the Moral Dimension: The Hidden Agenda of Etzioni and Parsons Uta Gerhardt	77
5. Contesting the Fiducial Line: Legal Theory and the Duty to Be Loyal Deborah A. DeMott	99

6.	Sociology, Economics, and Normative Action: Notes Toward a Theory of Middle Height Göran Therborn	113
7.	Another Look at Etzioni's Concepts David Sciulli	135
Part III: Socioeconomics and Communitarianism: Research
8.	Family Values: A Communitarian Position David Popenoe	165
9.	Community Building in Industrial Relations: Creating Conditions for Workplace Participation Wolfgang Streeck	184
10.	Decoding the Language of Etzioni's Moral Dimension in Complex Organizations Calvin Morrill	195
Part IV: Obstacles to Community
11.	The Moral Dimension of Feminist Theories: Implications for Pay Equity Paula England and Linda Markowitz	219
12.	Middle-Class Avoidance, Indifference, and Discrete Nihilism David Sciulli	243
13.	The Human Rights Challenge to Communitarianism: Formal Organizations and Race and Ethnicity Gideon Sjoberg	273
Index		299
Contributors		313

---

Tables and Figures

Tables

1.1	Names Most Frequently Cited with Etzioni, 1986–94	27
1.2	Citations of Communitarianism in Periodicals	29
6.1	Modes of Explaining Human Action	115
6.2	Systems of Action	126
10.1	Conflict Management Issues in General Utility and Commco Narratives	205
10.2	Self and Adversary Conflict Management Actions in General Utility and Commco Narratives	206
10.3	Percentage of Words Devoted to Elaboration Dimensions of General Utility and Commco Narratives	208
10.4	Identities of Selves and Adversaries in General Utility and Commco Narratives	208
10.5	Justifications and Excuses for Conflict Management in Executive Accounts at General Utility and Commco	209

Figures

1.1	Etzioni Citation Cluster Map, 1986–94	28
11.1	Scattergram Plotting Job Pay Against Total Points, Where Female Jobs Pay Less than Male Jobs with the Same Number of Points	226