

PART ONE
Introduction 1

1. INTRODUCTION TO SERVICES	3
What Are Services?	5
Tangibility Spectrum	5
Trends in the Service Sector	6
Why Services Marketing?	7
A Service-based Economy	8
Service as a Business Imperative in
Manufacturing	10
Deregulated Industries and Professional
Service Needs	11
New Technologies Spawn Need for Service
Concepts	11
Services Marketing Is Different	12
Technology Spotlight: New Technology-
Based Services Require Customer
Education: The Case of Caller
Identification	13
Myths about Services	13
Myth 1: A Service Economy Produces
Services at the Expense of Other Sectors	13
Myth 2: Service Jobs Are Low Paying and
Menial	14
Myth 3: Service Production Is Labor
Intensive and Low in Productivity	15
Myth 4: The Growth of Government Is the
Reason We Are a Service Economy	16

CONTENTS

Myth 5: Service Is a Necessary Evil for Manufacturing Firms	16
Myth 6: Managing Services Is Just Like Managing Manufacturing Businesses	16
Differences in Goods versus Services
Marketing	18
Intangibility	19
Heterogeneity	20
Simultaneous Production and Consumption	20
Perishability	21
Challenges and Questions for Service Marketers	21
The Services Marketing Triangle	22
The Services Marketing Mix	23
Traditional Marketing Mix	23
Expanded Mix for Services	26
Summary	27
Discussion Questions	28
Exercises	28
Notes	29
2. KEY COMPETITIVE TRENDS AND CONCEPTUAL FRAMEWORK OF THE BOOK	30
Competitive Trends for the 1990s and Beyond	31
Customer Satisfaction and Customer Focus	31
Value	32
Total Quality Management and Service Quality	33

Emphasis on Service as a Key Differentiator in Manufacturing Firms	34
New Measurement Systems that Link Customer Satisfaction with Financial Goals and Operational Measurements	34
Emerging Technology	35
Internationalization of Services	36
Technology Spotlight: Virtual Reality	36
The Gaps Model of Service Quality	37
The Customer Gap: The Difference between Customer Perceptions and Expectations	37
Provider GAP 1: Not Knowing What Customers Expect	38
Provider GAP 2: Not Selecting the Right Service Designs Standards	40
Provider GAP 3: Not Delivering to Service Standards	43
Provider GAP 4: Not Matching Performance to Promises	45
Putting It All Together: Closing the Gaps	47
Summary and Conclusion	50
Discussion Questions	50
Exercises	50
Notes	51

PART TWO

Focus on the Customer 53

3. CONSUMER BEHAVIOR IN SERVICES	55
Services: Search versus Experience versus Credence Properties?	57
Services: Categories in the Decision-making Process and Framework of the Chapter	60
Information Search	60
Technology Spotlight: Consumer Resistance to Changing Technology: Voice Mail	63
Evaluation of Service Alternatives	63
Service Purchase and Consumption	66
Post-purchase Evaluation	69
Summary and Conclusion	72

Discussion Questions	72
Exercises	73
Notes	73
4. CUSTOMER EXPECTATIONS OF SERVICE	75
Meaning and Types of Service Expectations	77
Expected Service: Two Levels of Expectations	77
The Zone of Tolerance	79
Factors That Influence Customer Expectations of Service	82
Sources of Desired Service Expectations	82
Sources of Adequate Service Expectations	84
Technology Spotlight: Information Technology and Reengineering Combine to Change Customer Expectations of Service	87
Service Encounter Expectations versus Overall Service Expectations	88
Sources of Both Desired and Predicted Service Expectations	88
A Model of Customer Service Expectations	90
The Customer Gap Revised: Service Superiority versus Service Adequacy	91
Current Issues Involving Customer Service Expectations	93
What Does a Services Marketer Do if Customer Expectations Are "Unrealistic"?	94
How Does a Company Exceed Customer Service Expectations?	96
Do Customer Service Expectations Continually Escalate?	97
How Does a Service Company Stay Ahead of Competition in Meeting Customer Expectations?	97
Summary	99
Discussion Questions	99
Exercises	100
Notes	100

5. CUSTOMER PERCEPTIONS OF SERVICE	102
Factors That Influence Customer Perceptions of Service	104
Service Encounters, or “Moments of Truth”	105
The Evidence of Service	113
Image	114
Technology Spotlight: Capturing Customer Perceptions in Real Time	116
Price	116
How Are Customer Perceptions Organized?	116
Service Quality	117
Customer Satisfaction	123
Perceived Value	124
Perceptions of Service for Different Units of Analysis (UOA)	124
Strategies for Influencing Customer Perceptions	125
Aim for Customer Satisfaction in Every Service Encounter	126
Manage the Evidence of Service to Reinforce Perceptions	127
Communicate Realistically and Use Customer Experiences to Reinforce Images	127
Use Price to Enhance Customer Perceptions of Quality and Value	128
Summary	128
Discussion Questions	129
Exercises	130
Notes	130
 PART THREE
Listening to Customer Requirements	133
<hr/>
6. UNDERSTANDING CUSTOMER EXPECTATIONS THROUGH MARKETING RESEARCH	135
Using Marketing Research to Understand Customer Expectations	137

Stage 1: Define the Problem and Research Objectives	138
Stage 2: Develop a Services Measurement Strategy	142
Stage 3: Implement the Research Program	143
Technology Spotlight: How Technology Improves the Practice of Marketing Research	148
Stage 4: Collect and Tabulate the Data	154
Stage 5: Analyze and Interpret the Findings	154
Stage 6: Report the Findings	155
Use of Marketing Research Information	159
Upward Communication	161
Objectives for Upward Communication	162
Research for Upward Communication	162
Summary	165
Discussion Questions	165
Exercises	166
Notes	166
7. BUILDING CUSTOMER RELATIONSHIPS THROUGH SEGMENTATION AND RETENTION STRATEGIES	169
Relationship Marketing	171
Goals of Relationship Marketing	172
Benefits of Customer Retention	173
The Customer Isn't Always Right	178
The Foundation for Relationships:
Market Segmentation	180
Process for Market Segmentation and Targeting in Services	181
Individualized Service: Segments of One	187
Technology Spotlight: Customer Information Systems Allow Mass Customization of Services	188
Retention Strategies	189
Monitor Relationships	189
Three Levels of Retention Strategies	190
Recovery—Retaining Customers When Things Go Wrong	193
Customer Appreciation	195

Summary	196
Discussion Questions	196
Exercises	197
Notes	197

PART FOUR

Aligning Strategy, Service Design, and Standards 201

8. CUSTOMER-DEFINED SERVICE STANDARDS	203
Main Factors Leading to Provider GAP 2	205
Inadequate Standardization of Service Behaviors and Actions	205
Absence of Formal Goal Setting	207
Lack of Customer-defined Standards	208
Customer-Defined Service Standards	209
“Hard” Customer-defined Standards	209
“Soft” Customer-defined Standards	210
One-Time Fixes	213
Building Blocks: The Service Encounter Sequence	215
Expressing Customer Requirements as Specific Behaviors and Actions	218
Measurements of Behaviors and Actions	220
Process for Developing Customer-Defined Standards	222
Technology Spotlight: The Role of Information Technology in Customer-Defined Standards	222
Step 1: Identify Existing or Desired Service Encounter Sequence	223
Step 2: Translate Customer Expectations into Behaviors and Actions for Each Service	223
Step 3: Select Behaviors and Actions for Standards	224
Step 4: Decide Whether Hard or Soft Standards Are Appropriate	226
Step 5: Develop Feedback Mechanisms for Measurement to Standards	227

Step 6: Establish Measures and Target Levels	230
Step 7: Track Measures against Standards	232
Step 8: Provide Feedback about Performance to Employees	232
Step 9: Periodically Update Target Levels and Measures	232
Service Performance Indices	233
Summary	235
Discussion Questions	236
Exercises	236
Notes	237
9. LEADERSHIP AND MEASUREMENT SYSTEMS FOR MARKET-DRIVEN SERVICE PERFORMANCE	238
Key Reasons for GAP 2	240
Inadequate Service Leadership	240
Not Recognizing that Quality Service Is a Profit Strategy	240
Imbalanced Performance Scorecard	242
Service Leadership	242
A Leader Creates a Service Vision	243
A Leader Implements the Service Vision	245
The Challenge of Middle Management	251
Service Quality as a Profit Strategy	252
The Role of Service Quality in Offensive Marketing: Attracting More and Better Customers	252
The Role of Service Quality in Defensive Marketing: Retaining Customers	254
The Balanced Performance Scorecard	256
Technology Spotlight: Implementing a Balanced Scorecard in Health Care	257
Financial Measurement	257
Customer Perception Measurement	258
Operational Measurement	258
Innovation and Learning Measurement	258
Summary	259
Discussion Questions	259

Exercises	260
Notes	260
10. SERVICE DESIGN AND POSITIONING	263
Challenges of Service Design and Positioning	265
New Service Development	267
Types of New Services	268
Stages in New Services Development	269
Technology Spotlight: Technology Revolutionizes Service Offerings	270
Use of a Formal New Service Development Model by Service Firms	275
Service Blueprinting	277
What Is a Service Blueprint?	277
Service Blueprint Examples	280
Reading and Using Service Blueprints	282
Building a Blueprint	285
Service Positioning	286
Positioning Dimensions	288
Positioning on the Five Dimensions of Service Quality	288
Positioning on Service Evidence	291
Summary	293
Discussion Questions	295
Exercises	296
Notes	296

PART FIVE

Delivering and Performing Service

299

11. EMPLOYEES' ROLES IN SERVICE DELIVERY	301
The Critical Importance of Service Employees	303
Employee Satisfaction—Customer Satisfaction	304
Service Quality Dimensions Are Driven by Employee Behaviors	306

Boundary-Spanning Roles	307
Emotional Labor	307
Sources of Conflict	308
Quality/Productivity Trade-offs	310
Strategies for Closing GAP 3	311
Technology Spotlight: Imaging System Increases Productivity and Customer Service	311
Hire the Right People	313
Develop People to Deliver Service Quality	316
Provide Needed Support Systems	322
Retain the Best People	325
Service Culture	328
Summary	329
Discussion Questions	330
Exercises	331
Notes	331
12. DELIVERING SERVICE THROUGH INTERMEDIARIES	334
Intermediaries and the GAPs Model	337
Reasons for GAP 3 Involving Intermediaries	338
Key Intermediaries for Service Delivery	340
Franchising	340
Agents and Brokers	348
Electronic Channels	351
Technology Spotlight: Ticketless Air Travel	355
Strategies for Effective Service Delivery through Intermediaries	356
Control Strategies	357
Empowerment Strategies	357
Partnering Strategies	359
Summary	359
Discussion Questions	360
Exercises	360
Notes	361

13. CUSTOMERS' ROLES IN SERVICE DELIVERY	363
The Importance of Customers in Service Delivery	366
Customer Receiving the Service	367
Other Customers	367
Customers' Roles	368
Customers as Productive Resources	368
Customers as Contributors to Service Quality, Value, and Satisfaction	370
Customers as Competitors	372
Strategies for Enhancing Customer Participation	373
Define Customers' Jobs	373
Technology Spotlight: At Charles Schwab Investors Watch the Market Themselves	376
Recruit, Educate, and Reward Customers	378
Manage the Customer Mix	382
Summary	384
Discussion Questions	384
Exercises	385
Notes	385
14. MANAGING DEMAND AND CAPACITY	387
The Underlying Issue: Lack of Inventory Capability	389
Understanding Capacity Constraints	392
Time, Labor, Equipment, Facilities	392
Optimal versus Maximal Use of Capacity	393
Understanding Demand Patterns	394
Charting Demand Patterns	394
Predictable Cycles	394
Random Demand Fluctuations	395
Demand Patterns by Market Segment	395
Strategies for Matching Capacity and Demand	396
Shifting Demand to Match Capacity	396
Flexing Capacity to Meet Demand	399
Yield Management: Balancing Capacity Utilization, Pricing, Market Segmentation, and Financial Return	401

Challenges and Risks in Using Yield Management	403
Technology Spotlight: Shippers Turn to Computer Technology to Assist with Yield Management	403
Waiting Line Strategies: When Demand and Capacity Cannot Be Aligned	404
Employ Operational Logic	405
Establish a Reservation Process	406
Differentiate Waiting Customers	407
Make Waiting Fun, or at Least Tolerable	408
Summary	410
Discussion Questions	411
Exercises	412
Notes	412
15. INTERNATIONAL SERVICES
MARKETING	414
Challenges in the Global Market	417
Legal Barriers to Services Marketing	417
Cultural Barriers to Services Marketing	419
Technology Spotlight:
Internationalizing the Airwaves	424
Opportunities in International Services	425
U.S. Exports of Services	426
Free Trade Agreements	426
Opportunities in International Markets	430
Selling Services Internationally the Easy Way, at Home	430
Trade Creates Service Demand	431
Data on International Services	434
Pursuing and Managing Opportunities for International Services	434
Adapting the Service Itself	434
Adapting Promotion and Distribution	435
Adapting Entry Modes	437
Adapting Communication	438
Adapting Work Force Management	440
Adapting Marketing Research Internationally	441
Summary	442
Discussion Questions	442

Exercises	443
Notes	443

PART SIX

Managing Service Promises 447

16. THE ROLE OF ADVERTISING, PERSONAL SELLING, AND OTHER COMMUNICATION	449
Key Reasons for GAP 4 Involving Communication	452
Inadequate Management of Service Promises	452
Overpromising in Advertising and Personal Selling	453
Inadequate Customer Education	454
Inadequate Horizontal Communications	455
Differences in Policies and Procedures across Distribution Outlets	456
Four Categories of Strategies to Match Service Promises with Delivery	456
Managing Service Promises	457
Resetting Customer Expectations	462
Improving Customer Education	465
Managing Horizontal Communications	468
Exceeding Customer Expectations: Caveats and Strategies	472
Demonstrate Understanding of Customer Expectations	474
Leverage the Delivery Dimensions	475
Exceed Expectations of Selected Customers	476
Underpromise and Overdeliver	478
Position Unusual Service as Unique, Not the Standard	478
Summary	478
Discussion Questions	479
Exercises	479
Notes	479
17. PRICING OF SERVICES	482
The Role of Price and Value in Provider GAP 4	484

Three Key Ways Service Prices Are Different for Consumers	485
Customer Knowledge of Service Prices	485
The Role of Nonmonetary Costs	489
Price as an Indicator of Service Quality	490
Approaches to Pricing Services	491
Cost-based Pricing	491
Competition-based Pricing	494
Technology Spotlight: On-Line Legal Fees	495
Demand-based Pricing	496
Summary	513
Discussion Questions	513
Exercises	514
Notes	514
18. THE PHYSICAL EVIDENCE OF SERVICE	516
Physical Evidence—What Is It?	519
Types of Servicescapes	521
Servicescape Use	521
Complexity of the Servicescape	523
Typology Implications	523
Roles of the Servicescape	524
Package	524
Facilitator	524
Socializer	525
Differentiator	526
Framework for Understanding Servicescape Effects on Behavior	526
The Underlying Framework	526
Behaviors in the Servicescape	527
Internal Responses to the Servicescape	530
Internal Response Moderators	533
Environmental Dimensions of the Servicescape	534
Approaches for Understanding Servicescape Effects	537
Environment Surveys	538
Direct Observation	538
Experiments	540
Technology Spotlight: Virtual Reality: Simulating Service Environments	541

Photographic Blueprints	542
Guidelines for Physical Evidence Strategy	542
Recognize the Strategic Impact of Physical Evidence	543
Map the Physical Evidence of Service	543
Clarify Roles of the Servicescape	543
Assess and Identify Physical Evidence Opportunities	544
Be Prepared to Update and Modernize the Evidence	544
Work Cross-functionally	544
Summary	545
Discussion Questions	546
Exercises	547
Notes	547

CASES

Case 1 The Chartered Bank of Canada	550
--	-----

Case 2 Roscoe Nondestructive Testing (A)	561
Case 3 The Launch of Classic FM	569
Case 4 Cedarbrae Volkswagen—Quality of Service	584
Case 5 Baxter Healthcare Corporation, Shared Services (A)	611
Case 6 Shouldice Hospital Limited	629
Case 7 AT&T (A): Focusing the Services Salesforce on Customers	647
AT&T (C): Employees as Customers	659
Case 8 Wolf Fenner (A): Pan-Europeanizing Service Quality	666
Case 9 Getting the Bugs Out	682
INDEX	691