

Brief Contents

Preface vii

Part 1 An Overview 2

Chapter 1 The Global Marketing Imperative 4

Part 2 The Global Marketing Environment 34

Chapter 2 The Cultural Environment 36
Chapter 3 Politics and Laws 62
Chapter 4 Economic and Financial Dimensions 88
Chapter 5 Transitions in Global Marketing 154

Part 3 Developing Global Readiness 196

Chapter 6 Building the Knowledge Base 198
Chapter 7 Globalization 242
Chapter 8 Organization and Control 265
Chapter 9 Market Entry 295
Chapter 10 Global Expansion 329

Part 4 Global Marketing Strategy 380

Chapter 11 Global Product Management 382
Chapter 12 Global Services Marketing 417
Chapter 13 Managing Global Channel Relations 442
Chapter 14 Global Logistics Management 473
Chapter 15 Global Pricing Strategies 501
Chapter 16 Global Promotional Strategies 536
Chapter 17 The Future 571
Name Index 632
Subject Index 637

Contents

Preface vii

Part 1 An Overview 2

Chapter 1	The Global Marketing Imperative	4
	What Global Marketing Is	5
	The Importance of World Trade	7
	Global Linkages	9
	Domestic Policy Repercussions	9
	Opportunities and Challenges in Global Marketing	14
	Realization of Opportunities	16
	Summary	18
	The Global Market Window
	1.1 Global Opportunities Abound	4
	1.2 Does Global Marketing Create Peace?	14
	1.3 Whirlpool Succeeds Abroad	15
	1.4 Affluence through Global Marketing	16
	Appendix A Basics of Marketing	21
	Appendix B Geography and Global Marketing	25

Part 2 The Global Marketing Environment 34

Chapter 2	The Cultural Environment	36
	Culture Defined	38
	The Elements of Culture	40
	Language	40
	Nonverbal Language	43
	Religion	43
	Values and Attitudes	44
	Manners and Customs	45
	Material Elements	49
	Aesthetics	50
	Education	50
	Social Institutions	51
	Sources of Cultural Knowledge	52
	Cultural Analysis	54
	The Training Challenge	57
	Summary	60
	The Global Market Window
	2.1 Flying the Not-Always-So-Friendly Skies	36
	2.2 Business Is Business around the World, or Is It?	46
	2.3 Pitching Ketchup in 57 Ways	48
	2.4 Preparing for Global Markets	59

Chapter 3	Politics and Laws	62
	Home-Country Political and Legal Environment		63
	Embargoes and Sanctions	64
	Export Controls	67
	Import Controls	67
	Regulation of International Business Behavior		68
	Host-Country Political and Legal Environment		72
	Political Action and Risk	72
	Legal Differences and Restraints		78
	Influencing Politics and Laws	81
	The International Environment	84
	International Politics	84
	International Treaties and Laws	84
	Transnational Institutions Affecting World Trade		85
	The General Agreement on Tariffs and Trades (GATT) and the World Trade Organization (WTO)	85
	Summary	86
	The Global Market Window
	3.1 Environmental Concern or the Politics of International Trade?		62
	3.2 Vietnam Embargo Ends, U.S. Firms Enter	66
	3.3 Construction Barriers in Japan	70
	3.4 Buying Business Abroad	71
	3.5 Two Air Disasters, Two Cultures, Two Remedies		79
	3.6 Backbone of the New China Lobby: U.S. Firms		82
Chapter 4	Economic and Financial Dimensions	88
	Market Characteristics	92
	Population	92
	Infrastructure	104
	Geography	106
	Foreign Involvement in the Economy		107
	Impact of the Economic Environment on Social Development		110
	Regional Economic Integration	111
	Levels of Economic Integration	112
	European Integration	114
	North American Integration	116
	Other Economic Alliances	118
	Economic Integration and the Global Marketer		120
	Financial Dimensions	123
	Types of Financial Risk	125
	Sources of Financing	126
	Financial Risk Management		129
	Summary	133
	The Global Market Window
	4.1 The Global Economy	88
	4.2 Consumers in the 1990s: Emerging Differences		98
	4.3 NAFTA Makes Its Mark	117
	4.4 Easing the Credit Crunch	124
	Appendix A Indicators of Market Size for 115 Countries		137
Chapter 5	Transitions in Global Marketing	154
	Marketing and the Newly Emerging Market Economies		156
	The Demise of the Socialist System	157

The Realities of Economic Change	161
Adjusting to Rapid Change	163
Global Marketing Opportunities and Challenges	168
Marketing in the Newly Emerging Democracies	168
Sourcing from the Newly Emerging Democracies	170
Using Countertrade as a Marketing Strategy	172
Summary	176
The Global Market Window
5.1 A Study of Two “Market” Strategies	154
5.2 Kmart in the Czech Republic	164
5.3 Education Is Key to Market Success	165
5.4 Is the West Ready for Change?	166
5.5 Hungary’s Economic Revival	169
5.6 Will Marketers Win the Battle for the Soul?	171
5.7 Countertrade at Bell Helicopters	175
Part 2 Cases
One Afternoon at the United States International Trade Commission	177
IKEA in the USA	180
The Banana War	184
The Tuna and the Dolphin	187
Video Case: North American Free Trade Agreement	190
Video Case: A Taste of the West	191

Part 3 Developing Global Readiness 196

Chapter 6	Building the Knowledge Base	198
	Defining the Issue	199
	International and Domestic Research	200
	New Parameters	200
	New Environments	200
	Number of Factors Involved	201
	Broader Definition of Competition	201
	Recognizing the Need for Research	201
	Determining Research Objectives	202
	Going International: Exporting	202
	Going International: Importing	204
	Market Expansion	204
	Determining Secondary Information Requirements	204
	Sources of Data	208
	Governments	208
	International Organizations	208
	Service Organizations	208
	Trade Associations	209
	Directories and Newsletters	209
	Data Bases	209
	Other Firms	209
	Analyzing and Interpreting Secondary Data	210
	The Primary Research Process	212
	Determining Information Requirements	212
	Industrial versus Consumer Research	214
	Determining Research Administration	214
	Determining the Research Technique	217

	Designing the Survey Questionnaire	222
	Developing the Sampling Plan	223
	Data Collection	224
	Analyzing and Interpreting Primary Data	225
	Presenting Research Results	225
	Follow-up and Review	225
	The International Information System	226
	Environmental Scanning	227
	Delphi Studies	230
	Scenario Building	230
	Summary	231
	The Global Market Window
	6.1 Some First Steps in International Research	198
	6.2 On-Line Decision Support	211
	6.3 Adjusting Research to Market Conditions	213
	6.4 Global Focus Groups	219
	6.5 Creative Primary Research	224
	6.6 The Global Spyglass	227
	Appendix A Monitors of International Issues	234
	Appendix B Selected U.S. Government Publications and Services	240
Chapter 7	Globalization	242
	Globalization Drivers	244
	Market Factors	244
	Cost Factors	245
	Environmental Factors	245
	Competitive Factors	246
	Global Strategic Planning Processes	247
	Understanding and Adjusting the Core Strategy	248
	Formulating Global Marketing Strategy	251
	Global Marketing Program Development	257
	Implementing Global Marketing	259
	Summary	263
	The Global Market Window
	7.1 Appliance Makers on a Global Quest	242
	7.2 Born Global	247
	7.3 Segmenting Emerging Markets	256
	7.4 Finding the Fit Overseas	261
Chapter 8	Organization and Control	265
	Organizational Structure	266
	Organizational Designs	267
	Locus of Decision Making	277
	Factors Affecting Structure and Decision Making	278
	The Networked Global Organization	279
	The Role of Country Organizations	281
	Control	282
	Types of Control	284
	Exercising Control	287
	Summary	291
	The Global Market Window
	8.1 Recasting One's Corporate Mind	265
	8.2 Restructuring for NAFTA	273

8.3	Characteristics of Success	282
8.4	Global Talent Search	288
Chapter 9	Market Entry	295
	Motivations to Internationalize	296
	Proactive Motivations	298
	Reactive Motivations	300
	Change Agents	302
	Internal Change Agents	302
	External Change Agents	303
	Export Development Stages	304
	Exporter Concerns	305
	Corporate Strategy and Exporting	306
	Market-Entry Alternatives	308
	Licensing	308
	Assessment of Licensing	309
	Principal Issues in Negotiating Licensing Agreements	311
	Trademark Licensing	312
	Franchising	312
	Facilitating Intermediaries	317
	Export Management Companies	318
	Trading Companies	322
	Summary	326
	The Global Market Window
	9.1 Export or Perish?	295
	9.2 A Passionate Commitment to Exporting	299
	9.3 Technology Licensing Grows Rapidly	309
	9.4 Pizza Franchises Bring In the Dough	313
	9.5 A Sample of Export Intermediaries	319
Chapter 10	Global Expansion	329
	Foreign Direct Investment	330
	Major Foreign Investors	331
	Reasons for Direct Investment	333
	A Perspective on Foreign Direct Investors	339
	Types of Ownership	342
	Management Contracts	352
	Summary	353
	The Global Market Window
	10.1 Why Firms Invest Abroad	329
	10.2 Europe Loves Dixie	338
	10.3 R. R. Donnelley Invests Abroad	340
	10.4 Joint Ventures in Developing Countries: The Heinz Philosophy	344
	10.5 An Alliance Casts Its Net Across Europe	347
	10.6 Small Firms Use Alliances Too	351
	Part 3 Cases
	Parker Pen Company	356
	Kaline	360
	Hathaway Electronics: The Foreign Assignment	362
	Toys 'R' Us in Japan	367
	Water from Iceland	371
	Damar International	374
	Video Case: Lakewood Forest Products	376

Part 4 Global Marketing Strategy 380

Chapter 11	Global Product Management	382
	Product Variables	384
	Standardization versus Adaptation	384
	Factors Affecting Adaptation	357
	The Market Environment	388
	Government Regulations and Nontariff Barriers	388
	Customer Characteristics, Expectations, and Preferences	390
	Economic Development	392
	Competitive Offerings	392
	Climate and Geography	393
	Product Characteristics	393
	Product Constituents	394
	Branding	394
	Packaging	395
	Appearance	398
	Method of Operation or Usage	398
	Quality	399
	Service	400
	Country-of-Origin Effects	400
	Company Considerations	400
	Product Counterfeiting	401
	Global Product Planning and Development	404
	The Product-Development Process	405
	The Location of R&D Activities	408
	The Organization of Global Product Development	411
	The Testing of New-Product Concepts	413
	The Global Product Launch	414
	Summary	414
	The Global Market Window
	11.1 Europeanizing Products	382
	11.2 When There Is More to a Name	396
	11.3 Ford's Centers of Excellence	410
	11.4 A Classic Global Launch	415
Chapter 12	Global Services Marketing	417
	Differences between Services and Products	418
	Linkage between Services and Products	419
	Stand-Alone Services	420
	Global Services and the U.S. Economy	423
	Services and the World Economy	426
	Global Transformation in the Services Sector	427
	International Trade Problems in Services	428
	Data-Collection Problems	428
	National Regulations of Services	429
	Government Responses to Problems in International Services Marketing	430
	U.S. Developments	430
	International Developments	431
	Corporate Involvement in International Services Marketing	431
	Typical International Services	431
	Starting to Market Services Internationally	437
	Strategic Implications of International Services Marketing	438

Summary	440
The Global Market Window
12.1 U.S. Companies at Your Service	417
12.2 Servicing the Chinese Market	426
12.3 When Entertainment Turns Serious	432
12.4 Education: A Prized Service in Trade	435
Chapter 13 Managing Global Channel Relations	442
Channel Design	444
Customer Characteristics	445
Culture	446
Competition	447
Company Objectives	449
Character	450
Capital	450
Cost	451
Coverage	451
Control	452
Continuity	453
Communication	453
Selection of Intermediaries	454
Types of Intermediaries	454
Sources for Finding Intermediaries	456
Screening Intermediaries	459
The Distributor Agreement	462
Channel Management	464
Factors in Channel Management	465
A Special Problem: Gray Markets	466
Termination of the Channel Relationship	469
Summary	471
The Global Market Window
13.1 Different Ways of Getting the Job Done	442
13.2 The Changing Landscape of Retailing	448
13.3 No Black or White in Gray Market Cases	469
13.4 Mastering the Japanese Distribution Maze	470
Chapter 14 Global Logistics Management	473
A Definition of Global Logistics	475
The Impact of Global Logistics	477
Differences between Domestic and Global Logistics	478
Global Transportation Issues	479
Transportation Infrastructure	479
Availability of Modes	479
Choice of Modes	483
Global Inventory Issues	487
Global Packaging Issues	489
Global Storage Issues	492
Storage Facilities	492
Foreign Trade Zones	493
Management of Global Logistics	495
Centralized Logistics Management	495
Decentralized Logistics Management	495
Contract Logistics	496

Logistics and the Environment	496
Summary	499
The Global Market Window
14.1 A Meal from around the World	473
14.2 Ro-Ro Your Boat	481
14.3 Sea-Air: The Best of Both Worlds	486
14.4 How to Ship Your Car	491
14.5 Cutting Delivery from Two Weeks to Two Days	497
14.6 Environmental Impact on Logistics	499

Chapter 15	Global Pricing Strategies	501
	Price Dynamics	502
	Setting the Export Price	504
	Export Pricing Strategy	505
	Export-Related Costs	506
	Terms of Sale	508
	Terms of Payment	511
	Adjusting to Foreign Currency Fluctuations	515
	Price Negotiations	517
	Leasing	518
	Dumping	519
	Transfer Pricing	520
	Use of Transfer Prices to Achieve Corporate Objectives	523
	Transfer Pricing Challenges	524
	Pricing within Individual Markets	527
	Corporate Objectives	527
	Costs	529
	Demand and Market Factors	530
	Market Structure and Competition	530
	Environmental Constraints	531
	Pricing Coordination	532
	Summary	534
	The Global Market Window
	15.1 One's Squeeze, Another's Opportunity	501
	15.2 Penetrating Foreign Markets by Controlling Export Transport	510
	15.3 A Global Tax War?	521
	15.4 Coordinating Prices in Integrating Markets	533

Chapter 16	Global Promotional Strategies	536
	Planning Promotional Campaigns	538
	The Target Audience	538
	Campaign Objectives	539
	The Budget	541
	Media Strategy	541
	The Promotional Message	547
	The Campaign Approach	551
	Measurement of Advertising Effectiveness	558
	Other Promotional Elements	558
	Personal Selling	558
	Direct Mail	561
	Sales Promotion	561
	Trade Shows	564
	Public Relations	565

Summary	569
The Global Market Window
16.1 Communicating Globally, Executing Locally	536
16.2 The World Wants Its MTV!	540
16.3 Empowering the Global Sales Force	560
16.4 Expanding the Social Vision: Global Community Relations		567
Chapter 17 The Future	571
The Global Marketing Environment	572
The Political Environment	572
The Global Financial Environment	575
The Societal Environment	577
The Technological Environment	578
Changes in Trade Relations	579
Governmental Policy	580
The Future of Global Marketing Management		582
International Planning and Research	582
International Product Policy	583
Communications	584
Distribution Strategies	586
International Pricing	586
Careers in Global Marketing	587
Further Training	587
Employment with a Multinational Corporation		587
Employment with a Small or Medium-Sized Firm		594
Self-Employment	596
Summary	596
The Global Market Window
17.1 The Demise of the Global Firm?	571
17.2 Women Excel in Global Marketing	588
17.3 Managing Global Careers	595
Part 4 Cases
Benetton	599
Establishing an Overseas Law Office	591
Nova Scotia	604
The Audi 5000: The Aftermath of Sudden Acceleration		608
Spectrum Color Systems, Inc.	614
Hong Kong: The Market of the Future or No Future		622
Video Case: Charting a Course in a Global Economy		630
Name Index	632
Subject Index	637	