

Contents

Notes on contributors		vii
Lindsay Granshaw	Introduction	1
I Medieval		19
1. Martha Carlin	Medieval English hospitals	21
2. Miri Rubin	Development and change in English hospitals, 1100–1500	41
II Early Modern		61
3. John Henderson	The hospitals of late-medieval and Renaissance Florence: a preliminary survey	63
4. Sandra Cavallo	Charity, power, and patronage in eighteenth-century Italian hospitals: the case of Turin	93
5. Craig Rose	Politics and the London Royal Hospitals, 1683–92	123
6. Roy Porter	The gift relation: philanthropy and provincial hospitals in eighteenth-century England	149
III Modern		179
7. Eduard Seidler	An historical survey of children's hospitals	181

Contents

8. Lindsay Granshaw	'Fame and fortune by means of bricks and mortar': the medical profession and specialist hospitals in Britain, 1800–1948	199
9. Caroline C.S. Murphy	From Friedenheim to hospice: a century of cancer hospitals	221
10. Morris J. Vogel	Managing medicine: creating a profession of hospital administration in the United States, 1895–1915	243
Index		261