

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Chapter One: The most interesting person in the world—a brief encounter	1
Chapter Two: Mr. Hobbes's mechanical giant	12
Chapter Three: The original Idealist	21
Chapter Four: The boy who invented biology	50
Chapter Five: Echoing voices in medieval cloisters	104
Chapter Six: He is the very model of a mechanical English mind	113
Chapter Seven: Three wise men are agreed	139
Chapter Eight: The Baron De Montesquieu and Jean Jacques Rousseau	144
Chapter Nine: The strange little man who invented altruism and sociology	161
Chapter Ten: The bold adventures of Émile Durkheim	231
Chapter Eleven: The selective character of this history	324
Notes and Bibliography	345