

Contents

SECTION I: INTRODUCTION

| | |
|--|----|
| CHAPTER 1: Thinking about Social Change in America | 15 |
|--|----|

SECTION II: TRENDS IN CIVIC ENGAGEMENT AND SOCIAL CAPITAL

| | |
|---|-----|
| CHAPTER 2: Political Participation | 31 |
| CHAPTER 3: Civic Participation | 48 |
| CHAPTER 4: Religious Participation | 65 |
| CHAPTER 5: Connections in the Workplace | 80 |
| CHAPTER 6: Informal Social Connections | 93 |
| CHAPTER 7: Altruism, Volunteering, and Philanthropy | 116 |
| CHAPTER 8: Reciprocity, Honesty, and Trust | 134 |
| CHAPTER 9: Against the Tide? Small Groups, Social Movements, and the Net | 148 |

SECTION III: WHY?

| | |
|---|-----|
| CHAPTER 10: Introduction | 183 |
| CHAPTER 11: Pressures of Time and Money | 189 |
| CHAPTER 12: Mobility and Sprawl | 204 |
| CHAPTER 13: Technology and Mass Media | 216 |

| | |
|---|-----|
| CHAPTER 14: From Generation to Generation | 247 |
| CHAPTER 15: What Killed Civic Engagement? Summing Up | 277 |
| SECTION IV: SO WHAT? (with the assistance of Kristin A. Goss) | |
| CHAPTER 16: Introduction | 287 |
| CHAPTER 17: Education and Children's Welfare | 296 |
| CHAPTER 18: Safe and Productive Neighborhoods | 307 |
| CHAPTER 19: Economic Prosperity | 319 |
| CHAPTER 20: Health and Happiness | 326 |
| CHAPTER 21: Democracy | 336 |
| CHAPTER 22: The Dark Side of Social Capital | 350 |
| SECTION V: WHAT IS TO BE DONE? | |
| CHAPTER 23: Lessons of History: The Gilded Age and the Progressive Era | 367 |
| CHAPTER 24: Toward an Agenda for Social Capitalists | 402 |
| APPENDIX I: Measuring Social Change | 415 |
| APPENDIX II: Sources for Figures and Tables | 425 |
| APPENDIX III: The Rise and Fall of Civic and Professional Associations | 437 |
| NOTES | 445 |
| THE STORY BEHIND THIS BOOK | 505 |
| INDEX | 515 |