

Contents

Contributors	xi
Preface	xv
Section I: The growing demand for credit risk analysis	1
1. Secular growth of debt securities markets	3
2. The markets' drivers — information technology and deregulation	13
3. An explosion of opportunities — and risks — in the 1990s	17
Section II: The role of the rating agency	45
4. The rating agency's role in developed markets	47
5. The rating agency's role in developing markets	61
Section III: Introduction to Moody's rating system	69
6. The rating symbols	71
7. The rating process	87
Section IV: A framework for a global analysis of credit risk	101
8. Some general guidelines	103
9. Assessing true economic values — where the company is now	115
10. Assessing true economic values — some useful measures	127
11. Forecasting true economic values — where the company is going	137
Section V: Sovereign risk analysis	155
12. Sovereign nations	157
13. Supranational agencies	187
14. The risks of privatisation	199

Section VI: Banks and bank holding companies	221
15. Bank analysis	223
16. The special risks of bank holding companies	247
17. Special analytical issues relating to banks and bank holding companies	253
Section VII: Non-bank financial institutions	259
18. Securities firms	261
19. Mutual funds	277
20. Building societies	283
Section VIII: Insurance companies	297
21. Life and general insurance companies	299
22. Corporate financial guarantors	313
23. Private mortgage insurers	325
Section IX: Industrial companies	333
24. Industrial companies	335
Section X: Investor-owned public utilities	363
25. Investor-owned public utilities	365
Section XI: Issue-specific analysis	411
26. Long-term debt securities	413
27. Preferred stock	437
28. Medium-term note programmes	445
Section XII: Structured financings	449
29. Market overview	451
30. Collateral risk	467
31. Structural risks	489
32. Legal and regulatory risks	497
33. Credit risks of third parties	505
34. Putting all the pieces together — the rating judgement	509
Section XIII: US public finance	513
35: American municipalities	515

Appendices	549
1. Complete rating definitions	551
2. Sample ratios used by Moody's	561
3. Default rates of corporate bond issuers, 1970-89	593
4. Defaults and orderly exits of commercial paper issuers, 1972-90	607
5. How to access Moody's ratings and credit opinions	621
Index	627