

CONTENTS

List of Figures	x
List of Tables	x
Preface	xi
1 LOCAL ECONOMIES, LOCALITIES AND SMALL FIRMS
Introduction	1
Small Businesses, Local Economies and Contemporary Debates	3
Industrial Districts and Britain	5
New Industrial Districts in the UK	6
Regions and Localities	8
Inner Cities	10
Local Authorities and Local Economies	12
Central Government Replaces Local Government	17
Researchers and Local Economies	19
Conclusions	22
2 INTER-FIRM LINKAGES AND LOCAL ECONOMIES
Introduction	28
Subcontracting Relations	29
Theories of Subcontracting	31
The Neglect of Locality in Subcontracting Studies	33
A Critique and Some Further Theorising	34
Trends in Subcontracting and Small Firm Dependence	39
Conclusions	45
3 A NEW STUDY OF LOCAL ECONOMIES
Introduction	52
The Small Enterprise: Confusions and Conceptualisations	53

A Qualitative Approach: Grounded Definitions of the Small Enterprise	55
Nine Types of Economic Activities	57
Localities and their Selection	61
Sampling Frames and Samples	66
Interviewing and Interview Schedules	71
Conclusions	72
4 SMALL FIRMS, THEIR OWNERS AND RELATIONS WITH LOCALITIES
Introduction	76
Trading Patterns and Small Firms	77
Purchases, Linkages and Locality: Evidence from Printing and Electronics	80
Types of Business Relations between Firms	81
Small Firm Trading and Customer Size: Evidence from Printing and Electronics	82
Small Firm–Large Firm Relationships	84
Small Business Owners' Views on Working with Large Firms	87
BS 5750 and Small Firm–Large Firm Relations	90
Networking and the Small Business	91
The Use of Local Advisory Bodies and Agencies: Accountants, Solicitors and Banks	94
Using Advisory Bodies and Agencies: Public and Quasi-Public Sources of Advice	97
Owner-Managers' Membership Patterns	101
Owner-Managers Networking: A Critical Incidents Approach	105
Critical Incidents Inside the Business	110
Critical Incidents and Family Life	111
Conclusions	113
5 LARGE FIRMS, LOCALITIES AND SMALL FIRMS
Introduction	120
Large Firms and Public Sector Organisations in Two Localities	122
Purchasing and Local Economic Links	124
Locality and Size of Firm in Large Firm, Large Organisation Purchasing	127
Attitudes to Small Firms	129
The Purchasing Behaviour of Large Firms and Organisations	133
Manufacturing	135
Non-Professional Services	137
Professional Services	140
The Impact of BS 5750 and the Shift to Preferred Suppliers	144
The Embeddedness of Large Firms and Public Sector Organisations	146

The Message from the Future: The SEM and Locality	152
Conclusions	153
6 ENTERPRISE AND LOCALITY IN THE 1990s
Introduction	161
Local Economies, Locality and Small Businesses	162
Local Economic Networks and Networking Activities	166
Embeddedness and Local Economic Activities	170
Large Firms, Public Sector Organisations and Localities	172
Industrial Districts, Subcontracting and JIT	177
Small Firms, Large Firms, Localities and Policies	180
Concluding Remarks and a Summary of the Argument	182
References	189
Appendix	201
Subject Index	204
Author Index	208

LIST OF FIGURES

Figure 3.1	Nine Types of Economic Activity and Seven Grounded Definitions of the Small Enterprise	60
Figure 4.1	Main Customer by Sector Type	82
Figure 4.2	Owner-Managers General Continuum of Business Networking Activities	93
Figure 5.1	Group Purchasing Department	125
Figure 6.1	Small Firms, Large Firms/Organisations and Localities	184

LIST OF TABLES

Table 3.1	Unemployment Levels and Prosperity Index Rankings for the Seven Localities	67
Table 3.2	Initial Sample Response Rates for Types of Small Businesses and Localities	70
Table 4.1	Geographical Sales Patterns and Type of Enterprise	78
Table 4.2	Percentage of Purchases from within a 10-mile Radius	80
Table 4.3	Small Firms Reporting Trade with Large Public and Private Organisations in Their Local Economy	83
Table 4.4	Percentage of Trade with other Small or Medium Sized Firms	84
Table 4.5	Contract Work Undertaken by the Manufacturing Firms	84
Table 4.6	Sources of Help or Advice from Selected External Bodies on Solving Business Problems	95
Table 4.7	Service Sector Businesses Approaching Local TECs for Help or Advice	100
Table 4.8	Membership of Selected External Associations of Local Bodies	102
Table 4.9	Membership of Selected External Associations or Bodies by Business Sector	103
Table 4.10	Selected External Contacts of Small Business Owners	107
Table 5.1	Large Firms and Public Sector Organisations in Two Localities	123