

Contents

List of Tables	xiii
List of Figures	xvi
Preface	xvii
Introduction	xix
I. Part-Time Employment	1
1. Definitions and Available Data	1
2. Conditions and Developments in the Different EEC Countries	3
2.1 Developments	3
2.2 Principal Features	17
3. Explanatory Factors	19
3.1 Womens' Activity Rates; Unemployment Rates; Part-Time Working	19
3.2 Economic Structures	19
3.3 Initiatives on the Part of the Public Authorities	24
3.4 Part-Time Employment: Supply	28
3.5 Part-Time Employment: Demand	32
3.6 From a Macroeconomic Angle	34
4. Conclusion	34

II. Temporary Employment	35
1. Definitions	35
2. Employment on the Basis of Fixed-Term Contracts	36
2.1 Introduction	36
2.2 Conditions and Developments in the Various EEC Countries	37
2.3 Qualitative Aspects	42
2.3.1 Factors Explaining this Development	42
2.3.1.1 Initiatives Involving Labour and Management	42
2.3.1.2 Initiatives on the Part of the Public Authorities:	43
Legislative Measures and Employment in the Public Sector	43
2.3.2 Features of this Form of Employment	58
2.3.2.1 From a Personal Angle	58
2.3.2.2 From a Microeconomic Angle	65
2.3.2.3 From a Macroeconomic Angle	65
3. Interim Employment	65
3.1 Definition	65
3.2 Conditions and Developments in the Various EEC Countries	66
3.3 Qualitative Aspects	66
3.3.1 Factors Explaining this Development	66
3.3.2 Features of this Form of Employment	72
3.3.2.1 From a Personal Angle	72
3.3.2.2 From a Microeconomic Angle	72
3.3.2.3 From a Macroeconomic Angle	72
4. Seasonal Employment	72
4.1 Definition	72
4.2 Conditions and Developments in the Various EEC Countries	73
5. Casual Employment	73
5.1 Definition	73

5.2	Conditions and Developments in the Various EEC Countries	73
5.3	Qualitative Aspects	78
5.3.1	Factors Explaining this Development	78
5.3.1.1	From a Personal Angle	78
5.3.1.2	From a Microeconomic Angle	79
III.	Unsocial, Rotating & Split Working Hours	80
1.	Definitions	80
2.	Conditions and Developments in the Various EEC Countries	81
2.1	Availability of Statistics	81
2.2	Developments	81
3.	Qualitative Aspects	104
3.1	Factors Explaining this Development	104
3.1.1	Initiatives on the Part of Management and Labour	104
3.1.2	Initiatives on the Part of the Public Authorities	104
a)	Active	104
b)	Passive	105
3.2	Features of this Form of Employment	105
4.	Conclusion: From the Reduction to the Reform of Working Hours - a Clash Between Two Approaches	111
IV.	Self-Employed Workers & Subcontractors	113
1.	Definition and Data	113
2.	Conditions and Developments in the Various EEC Countries	119
3.	Qualitative Aspects	120
3.1	Factors Explaining this Development	120
3.2	Features of this Form of Employment	126
3.2.1	Social Security Coverage	127
3.2.2	From a Microeconomic Angle	128
3.2.3	From a Macroeconomic Angle	128

V. Family Workers	130
1. Definitions	130
2. Conditions and Developments in the Various EEC Countries	130
3. Qualitative Aspects	131
3.1 Factors Explaining this Development	131
3.2 Characteristic Features and Social Security Coverage	144
3.3 The Position with Respect to Social Security Coverage	144
VI. Home Working	147
1. Definitions	147
2. Conditions and Developments in the Various EEC Countries	154
3. Qualitative Aspects	155
3.1 Factors Explaining this Development	155
3.1.1 Factors Militating in Favour of a Decline	155
3.1.2 Factors Militating in Favour of an Upsurge	156
3.2 Features of this Form of Employment	156
3.2.1 From a Personal Angle	156
3.2.2 From a Microeconomic Angle	157
VII. Occupational Activities in the Illegal Economy	160
1. Definitions	160
2. Conditions and Developments in the Various EEC Countries	160
3. Qualitative Aspects	160
3.1 Factors Explaining this Development	160
3.1.1 Explanatory Factors From the User's Angle	161
3.1.2 Explanatory Factors From the Worker's Angle	161
3.2 Features of this Form of Activity	168
3.2.1 From a Personal Angle	168
3.2.2 From a Microeconomic Angle	169
3.2.3 From a Macroeconomic Angle	169
VIII. Incompletely Remunerated Employment	170
1. Definitions	170
2. Quantitative Aspects	170

3.	Qualitative Aspects	170
3.1	Explanation of this Phenomenon	170
3.2	Characteristic Features	171
IX.	Apprenticeships, Sandwich Courses and Training Courses for Young People	172
1.	From Guilds to Sandwich Courses	172
2.	Descriptions and Comments	173
3.	Qualitative Aspects	179
3.1	Factors Explaining this Development	179
3.2	Characteristic Features	196
3.2.1	From a Personal Angle	196
3.2.2	From a Microeconomic Angle	198
3.2.3	From a Macroeconomic Angle	198
4.	Conclusions	199
X.	In-company Courses for Workers Undergoing Retraining	201
1.	Comments and Observations	201
2.	The Situation in France	204
2.1	Pre-1990	204
a.	Economic Restructuring and the Accompanying Retraining of Workers	204
b.	Sandwich Resettlement Contracts	205
c.	Local Resettlement Programmes	206
d.	Local Supplementary Benefits	207
e.	Local Resettlement Programmes for Women	207
2.2	1990 Programme Mergers	208
XI.	Other Forms of Employment Arranged by the Public Authorities	209
A.	CMT ('Chômeurs mis au travail'); CST ('Cadre Spécial Temporaire'); TCT ('Troisième Circuit du Travail') 'Contractuels Subventionnés'; 'Fonds Budgétaire Interdépartemental' in Belgium	209
1.	Definitions	209
2.	Characteristic Features	210

B. Short-Time Working, Job Sharing and Subsidised Employment in Ireland	212
1. Definitions	212
a) Short-Time Working	212
b) Job-Sharing	212
c) Work Experience Programme in the Distribution and Retail Sectors plus the Employment Incentive Scheme	212
d) Programme for the Creation of Public Utility Jobs	212
2. Explanatory Factors and Characteristic Features	213
a) Short-Time Working	213
b) Job-Sharing	213
c) Work Experience Programme in the Distribution and Retail Sectors plus the Employment Incentive Scheme	213
d) Programme for the creation of jobs of community interest	214
C. DAT (Temporary auxiliary Task Force); DAC (Anti-Crisis Task Force); Special general Service Employment (Luxembourg)	214
a) DAT	214
b) Anti-Crisis Task Force (DAC = Division Anti-Crise) and Special General Service Employment (Travaux Extraordinaires d'Intérêt Général)	215
D. Plan for the Creation of Jobs in the Netherlands	215
E. Cultural Sites, the Fund for the Reduction of Unemployment and Community Jobs in Italy	216
a) Cultural Sites	216
b) The Fund for the Reduction of Unemployment	216
c) Community Jobs	216
F. General Community-based Initiatives (ABM) in the German Federal Republic	216
G. Employment Contracts for the Carrying Out of Tasks of Public Utility in Spain	217
a) Temporary public employment schemes under agreement with INEM (Contratacion de trabajadores dedempleados para la realizacion de obras y servicios de interes general mediante convenios con el INEM)	217

b) Temporary Social Services Contracts in the Public Sector (Trabajos de colaboracion social para trabajadores perceptores de prestaciones por desempleo)	217
H. Community Industry in the United Kingdom	217
XII. Child Labour	218
1. Definition	218
2. Characteristic Features	219
XIII. Multiple Job Holding	222
1. Definitions	222
2. Characteristic Features	223
XIV. Short-time Working	226
1. Definition	226
2. Conditions and Developments in the Various EEC Countries	226
Conclusion	230
I. The Problem of a Lack of Data	230
II. Development of Atypical Employment: Diversity and Convergence	231
1. Two Periods 1983-1985/1985-1990	231
2. Atypical Employment and New Departures	233
3. Atypical Employment and Segmentation	233
4. Atypical Employment and Job Insecurity	234
5. Atypical Employment and the Employment of Women	235
6. Atypical Employment and the Public Authorities	235
Bibliography	237

List of Tables

Table 1.1 : Part-time Employment - Data Available in the Labour Force Surveys	2
Table 1.2 : National Data on Part-time Working	2
Table 1.3 : Part-time Employment - Qualitative and Quantitative Developments	4
Table 1.4 : Part-time Employment - Labour Force Survey Data - 1986-1990	16
Table 1.5 : Increases in Employment and Part-time Employment in the Service Industries - 1985-1990	18
Table 1.6 : Changes and Amendments to Legislation since 1975 Relating to Part-time Employment	20
Table 1.7 : Part-time Employment in the Public Sector - Developments	25
Table 1.8 : Percentage of Part-time Workers Working Part-time because they have not been able to find Full-time Employment	30
Table 1.9 : Proportion of Wage-earners in Permanent or Temporary Employment According to whether they work Full-time or Part-time	31
Table 1.10 : Women's Employment and Part-time Employment	33
Table 2.1 : Countries with Higher (+) and Lower (-) Temporary Employment Rates	37
Table 2.2 : Temporary Work - Data from the Labour Force Survey	38

Table 2.3 :	Temporary Work as a Percentage of Total Employment and in the sectors where it is most important (%)	40
Table 2.4 :	The Countries Classified by Temporary Employment Rate Levels According to Gender (in 1983 and 1990)	42
Table 2.5 :	Developments in the Different Countries - Fixed Term Contracts	44
Table 2.6 :	Changes and Amendments to Legislation Since 1975 Relating to Temporary Employment	54
Table 2.7 :	The expiry of a period of fixed term employment as a reason for job loss	59
Table 2.8 :	Percentage of workers in temporary employment through having been unable to find permanent employment	59
Table 2.9 :	Percentage of Temporary Workers in Training	61
Table 2.10 :	Protection of Temporary Workers - Differences with Permanent Workers (1988)	64
Table 2.11 :	Developments in the Different Countries - Interim Employment	68
Table 2.12 :	Developments in the Different Countries - Seasonal Employment	74
Table 2.13 :	Developments in the Different Countries - Casual Employment	74
Table 3.1 :	Unsocial, Variable and Fragmented Working Time - Data Available in EEC Countries	83
Table 3.2 :	Developments in the Different Countries - Different Working Times	84
Table 3.3 :	Changes and Amendments to Legislation Relating to Unsocial, Variable and Fragmented Working Time	106
Table 4.1 :	Self-Employment: Development 1983-1990	114
Table 4.2 :	Labour Force Survey Data 1983-1990	118
Table 4.3 :	Help to Self-Employment (Starting a Business)	121
Table 4.4 :	Social Security Coverage for the Self-Employed	127
Table 5.1 :	Developments in the Different Countries - Assisting Relatives	132
Table 5.2 :	Protection of Assisting Relatives	146
Table 6.1 :	Developments in the Different Countries - Homeworking	148
Table 6.2 :	Protection of Homeworkers - Differences with Wage-Earners	159
Table 7.1 :	Developments in the Different Countries - The Underground Economy	162

Table 9.1 : Training Courses for Young People	174
Table 9.2 : France: Sandwich Training - Aims and Conditions	180
Table 9.3 : Developments in the Different Countries - Training Courses for Young People	184
Table 10.1 : In-Company Programmes of Qualification Improvement for People in Work	202
Table 12.1 : Developments in the Different Countries - Child Labour	220
Table 13.1 : Developments in the Different Countries - Job Pluralism	224
Table 14.1 : Persons Who Work Less than Usual Hours Due to Economic Reasons	227

List of Figures

Figure 1.1 : Part-time employment and public employment for men	26
Figure 1.2 : Part-time employment and public employment for women	27
Figure 2.1 : Temporary employment and public service for men - Developments between 1983 and 1990	52
Figure 2.2 : Temporary employment and the public service for women - Developments between 1983 and 1990	53
Figure 2.3 : Share of temporary employment in paid employment in the EEC on an age basis	60
Figure 2.4 : Share of temporary employment in wage earner employment per age for men (1989)	62
Figure 2.5 : Share of temporary employment in wage earner employment per age for women (1989)	63