

Outline contents

|                              |       |
|------------------------------|-------|
| Detailed contents     | vii   |
| Preface               | xiv   |
| List of Figures       | xv    |
| List of Exhibits      | xvi   |
| List of Tables        | xviii |
| List of Abbreviations | xx    |
| List of Contributors  | xxiv  |
| Editors' note         | xxv   |

|   |   |
|---|---|
| 1 The EU's Institutions: An Overview | 1 |
| John Peterson and Michael Shackleton |   |

---

Part I Providing Direction

|  |     |
|--|-----|
| 2 The European Council          | 21  |
| Philippe de Schoutheete         |     |
| 3 The Council of Ministers      | 47  |
| Fiona Hayes-Renshaw             |     |
| 4 The College of Commissioners  | 71  |
| John Peterson                   |     |
| 5 The European Parliament       | 95  |
| Michael Shackleton              |     |
| 6 The European Court of Justice | 118 |
| Kieran St Clair Bradley         |     |

---

Part II Managing the Union

|   |     |
|---|-----|
| 7 The Commission's Services                          | 141 |
| Neill Nugent   |     |
| 8 Managing the Euro: The European Central Bank       | 164 |
| Kathleen R. McNamara                                 |     |
| 9 Institutionalizing Freedom, Security, and Justice  | 186 |
| Jörg Monar   |     |
| 10 Making the CFSP Work                              | 210 |
| Knud Erik Jørgensen                                  |     |
| 11 Financial Control: The Court of Auditors and OLAF | 233 |
| Brigid Laffan  |     |

Part III Integrating Interests

|           |  |     |
|-----------|--|-----|
| 12 | Political Interests: The EP's Party Groups                      | 257 |
|           | Tapio Raunio  |     |
| 13 | National Interests: Coreper                                     | 277 |
|           | Jeffrey Lewis   |     |
| 14 | Functional Interests: European Agencies                         | 299 |
|           | Giandomenico Majone   |     |
| 15 | Social and Regional Interests: ESC and Committee of the Regions | 326 |
|           | Charlie Jeffery   |     |
| 16 | Conclusion  | 347 |
|           | John Peterson and Michael Shackleton                            |     |
|           | References  | 369 |
|           | Index   | 391 |

Detailed contents

---

|  |           |
|--|-----------|
| 1 The EU's Institutions: An Overview                            | 1  |
| Introduction   | 2         |
| Why study institutions?  | 4         |
| Why study the EU's institutions?                                       | 7         |
| 'Frustration without disintegration': the persistence of the EU system | 11        |
| These institutions and this book                                       | 13        |
| Conclusion   | 16        |
| <hr/>  |           |
| 2 The European Council  | 21 |
| Introduction   | 22        |
| Origins  | 23        |
| Composition and working methods  | 25        |
| Legal nature and characteristics                                       | 30        |
| Functions  | 33        |
| Political guidance and impetus   | 34        |
| Decision-making  | 35        |
| External visibility  | 36        |
| Solemn ratification  | 37        |
| Ultimate negotiator  | 38        |
| Strengths and weaknesses   | 40        |
| Conclusion   | 44        |
| <hr/>  |           |
| 3 The Council of Ministers                                      | 47 |
| Introduction   | 48        |
| The origins of the Council   | 49        |
| The Council hierarchy  | 49        |
| The ministers  | 50        |
| The presidency   | 51        |
| The Council Secretariat  | 52        |
| What does the Council do?  | 53        |
| The Council of Ministers   | 53        |
| Voting in the Council  | 56        |
| The presidency   | 58        |
| The Council Secretariat  | 60        |
| Relationships with other institutions                                  | 61        |
| The Council and the European Parliament                                | 61        |
| The Council and the Commission   | 61        |

viii DETAILED CONTENTS

|  |            |
|--|------------|
| Exerting influence in the Council                      | 62         |
| The Council and accountability                         | 65         |
| The Council in context                                 | 66         |
| The Council and the larger 'EU system'                 | 66         |
| The Council and enlargement                            | 67         |
| Conclusion   | 68         |
| <hr/>  |            |
| 4 The College of Commissioners                  | 71  |
| Introduction   | 72         |
| The origins and history of the college                 | 73         |
| The structure of the college                           | 82         |
| The President  | 82         |
| The college  | 85         |
| The cabinets                                    | 87         |
| The Commission's powers                                | 88         |
| The college in context                                 | 89         |
| Conclusion   | 92         |
| <hr/>  |            |
| 5 The European Parliament                       | 95  |
| Introduction   | 96         |
| Historical development                                 | 96         |
| Structures of the Parliament                           | 100        |
| Treaty provisions                                      | 100        |
| The committee system                                   | 101        |
| Leadership structures                                  | 101        |
| Powers of the Parliament                               | 102        |
| History-making decisions                               | 103        |
| Policy-making decisions                                | 104        |
| Policy-implementing decisions                          | 108        |
| The future of the Parliament                           | 109        |
| Conclusions  | 115        |
| <hr/>  |            |
| 6 The European Court of Justice                 | 118 |
| Introduction   | 119        |
| Establishment and structure                            | 120        |
| The Court of Justice                                   | 120        |
| The Court of First Instance                            | 122        |
| Judicial panels  | 122        |
| Powers and functions                                   | 123        |
| Application of Community law by the member states      | 123        |
| Respect of Community law by the political institutions | 125        |

|   |            |
|---|------------|
| The Court in the political life of the Community              | 128        |
| The impact of Community law in the member states              | 129        |
| The Court and political disputes                              | 132        |
| The scope of the Court's jurisdiction                         | 134        |
| Conclusions   | 136        |
| <hr/>   |            |
| 7 The Commission's Services                            | 141 |
| Introduction  | 142        |
| The development of the services                               | 142        |
| Organizing the services                                       | 144        |
| The personnel of the services                                 | 148        |
| Size  | 148        |
| Personnel policy  | 150        |
| Composition   | 150        |
| Functions   | 151        |
| Policy initiator  | 151        |
| Legislative functions   | 152        |
| Executive functions   | 152        |
| Legal guardian  | 153        |
| Mediator and broker   | 154        |
| External representative and negotiator                        | 154        |
| Exercising the Commission's functions                         | 155        |
| The reform of the services                                    | 156        |
| Organizational restructuring                                  | 158        |
| Reforms in personnel policy                                   | 158        |
| Making management more efficient                              | 160        |
| Prospects for success   | 161        |
| Conclusion  | 162        |
| <hr/>   |            |
| 8 Managing the Euro: The European Central Bank         | 164 |
| Introduction  | 165        |
| The ECB and the 'other' European banks                        | 165        |
| The origins of the ECB  | 167        |
| Economic and political rationales                             | 167        |
| Politics in practice: the long road to EMU                    | 169        |
| Creating the ECB  | 169        |
| The structure of the ECB                                      | 171        |
| The powers of the ECB: centralization versus national control | 174        |
| Monetary policy   | 175        |
| Economic policy coordination                                  | 176        |
| Exchange-rate policy  | 178        |

X DETAILED CONTENTS

Democratic accountability and legitimacy issues 180
Conclusion 183

---

9 Institutionalizing Freedom, Security, and Justice 186

Introduction 187
The European Council 189
The Council of the EU 192
The Senior Council committees 194
The presidency and the Secretariat-General of the Council 198
The European Commission 199
Democratic and judicial control 203
    The European Parliament 203
    The European Court of Justice 204
Europol and other special agencies 205
Conclusions 206

---

10 Making the CFSP Work 210

Introduction 211
The origins of the CFSP 212
    European Political Cooperation 212
    From EPC to CFSP 214
    The wider international environment 215
The structure of the CFSP 217
    How do the parts of the CFSP fit together? 217
    Contested development 218
    A European State Department in the making? 219
How does the CFSP fit into the EU system? 220
Powers of the CFSP 224
    Do we have a problem of accountability? 225
    Problems of the CFSP 226
Theorizing the evolution of the CFSP 227
Conclusion: scenarios for the future 228
    Scenario 1: enhanced status quo 228
    Scenario 2: the EU becomes a truly international player 229
    Scenario 3: institutional decay 230

---

11 Financial Control: The Court of Auditors and OLAF 233

Introduction 234

|   |            |
|---|------------|
| The origins of the institutions                       | 235        |
| Structure of the institutions                         | 237        |
| European Court of Auditors                            | 237        |
| OLAF  | 240        |
| Powers of the institutions                            | 241        |
| European Court of Auditors                            | 241        |
| OLAF  | 247        |
| The institutions in context                           | 248        |
| Financial control and the larger 'EU' system          | 248        |
| Theories of integration and institutional development | 249        |
| The impact of the institutions                        | 251        |
| Conclusions   | 251        |
| <hr/>   |            |
| 12 Political Interests: The EP's Party Groups  | 257 |
| Introduction  | 258        |
| The shape of the EP party system                      | 258        |
| Internal organization                                 | 263        |
| Coalition politics and parliamentary committees       | 268        |
| Electoral accountability                              | 271        |
| Conclusions   | 273        |
| <hr/>   |            |
| 13 National Interests: Coreper                 | 277 |
| Introduction  | 278        |
| Coreper's origins                                     | 279        |
| Structure of the institution                          | 282        |
| Coreper I and II                                      | 283        |
| Contestation  | 285        |
| Powers of the institution                             | 286        |
| De facto decision-makers                       | 287        |
| Integrating interests                                 | 288        |
| Continuous negotiation                                | 288        |
| Instruction and voice                                 | 289        |
| Insulation  | 290        |
| A dense normative environment                         | 291        |
| Plotting  | 292        |
| Style of discourse                                    | 292        |
| Accountability  | 293        |
| The institution in context                            | 294        |
| Blurring the national and the European                | 294        |
| Conclusions   | 296        |

---

|   |            |
|---|------------|
| 14 Functional Interests: European Agencies           | 299 |
| Introduction  | 300        |
| Why regulatory agencies?                                    | 301        |
| The new European agencies                                   | 302        |
| The Meroni doctrine and delegation                          | 303        |
| The politics of institutional choice: the birth of the EEA  | 306        |
| The position of the EP                                      | 308        |
| The outcome   | 309        |
| From committee to agency: the road to the EMEA              | 310        |
| The multi-state procedure                                   | 311        |
| The concertation procedure                                  | 312        |
| The centralized procedure and the establishment of the EMEA | 312        |
| The uncertain pursuit of regulatory credibility             | 316        |
| Telecommunications  | 316        |
| Food safety   | 317        |
| Delegation and credibility                                  | 318        |
| Political uncertainty and time inconsistency                | 318        |
| The politicization of the Commission                        | 319        |
| The network model   | 320        |
| The issue of accountability                                 | 321        |
| Conclusions   | 323        |

---

|   |            |
|---|------------|
| 15 Social and Regional Interests: ESC and Committee of the Regions | 326 |
| Introduction  | 327        |
| The origins of ESC and CoR  | 328        |
| The structure of ESC and CoR  | 331        |
| Membership  | 331        |
| Organization  | 333        |
| Coalition-building  | 335        |
| The powers of ESC and CoR   | 336        |
| Formal powers   | 337        |
| The ESC in practice   | 338        |
| The CoR in practice   | 340        |
| The ESC and CoR in context  | 343        |
| Conclusion  | 345        |

---

|                               |            |
|-------------------------------|------------|
| 16 Conclusion          | 347 |
| Introduction                  | 348        |
| Institutional interdependence | 350        |

|  |     |
|--|-----|
| Capacity: decline or renewal?                | 352 |
| The leadership challenge                     | 352 |
| The management challenge                     | 353 |
| The challenge of integrating interests       | 355 |
| The prospects for renewal                    | 357 |
| Embedding the national in the European       | 358 |
| EU institutions and the new institutionalism | 361 |
| Conclusion: the accountability conundrum     | 364 |