

Contents

Preface .....	5
By Cornelia Storz .....	5
I. INTRODUCTION .....	9
The German Lander: Able to attract foreign direct investment? .....	10
By Horst Zimmermann .....	10
An Overview and Several Key Issues of FDI in Japan .....	19
By Tomofumi Amano .....	19
II. TAX COMPETITION .....	29
Tax Competition vs. Tax Harmonization: Don't Throw the Baby out with the Bathtub .....	30
By Lars P. Feld .....	30
FDI and Japan's Tax Policy: Keys to Attract More FDI .....	66
By Hiroyuki Ono .....	66
III. REGULATORY COMPETITION .....	77
The German Labor Market: How Does It Affect Germany in Its Ability to Attract FDI? .....	78
By Uwe Vollmer .....	78
Do Japanese Social Security Systems have an Impact on the Competitiveness of Japan? .....	87
By Franz Waldenberger .....	87
Improving the International Competitiveness of the EU by Regulatory Competition and the "Open Method of Coordination": the Example of Pension Systems .....	96
By Wolfgang Kerber and Martina Eckardt .....	96

Recent Developments concerning Inward Direct Investment in Japan and their implications – An investigation into the causes of OUT/IN M&A	119
By Toru Nakakita	119

IV. BUSINESS STRATEGIES ..... 132

The tax burden of German companies in an international comparison...	133
by Matthias Gehrke and Michael Wehrheim	133

Inward Foreign Direct Investment and Changes in Japanese-Style Corporate Governance	143
By Kiyohiro Kokarimai	143