

Contents

List of Contributors	ix
Preface	xi
SECTION I
1. Genetics and the Family Environment Thalia C. Eley and Jennifer Y. F. Lau	3
2. The Role of Parenting in the Development of Psychopathology: An Overview of Research Using the Parental Bonding Instrument Gemma L. Gladstone and Gordon B. Parker	21
3. Attachment and Psychopathology: A Lifespan Perspective Judy Ungerer and Catherine McMahon	35
4. Interparental Conflict, Violence and Psychopathology Jennifer L. Hudson	53
SECTION II
5. Oppositional and Conduct Problems David J. Hawes and Mark R. Dadds	73
6. Attention-Deficit/Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD) and the Family: A Developmental Psychopathology Perspective Eric J. Mash and Charlotte Johnston	93
7. Family Factors and the Development of Anxiety Disorders Natalie S. Gar, Jennifer L. Hudson and Ronald M. Rapee	125

8. Eating Disorders Tracey Wade	147
9. Familial Risk Factors for Substance Use Disorders Shelli Avenevoli, Kevin P. Conway and Kathleen Ries Merikangas	167
10. Parenting and Personality Disorders Joel Paris	193
11. Family Factors in Schizophrenia and Bipolar Disorder Jill M. Hooley, Kristen A. Woodberry and Caitlin Ferriter	205
12. Depression and the Family Judy Garber	225
SECTION III
13. Family Involvement in Psychotherapy: What's the Evidence? Katharina Manassis	283
14. Clinical Perspectives on Involving the Family in Treatment Frank M. Dattilio	301
15. Family Intervention and Prevention of Behavioural and Emotional Disorders in Childhood and Adolescence Matthew R. Sanders and Alan Ralph	323
Author Index	351
Subject Index	383