Contents

Acl	knowledgments	ix
1.	Introduction: A Moment of Opportunity and Challenge	I
Part One. The Networked Information Economy
2.	Some Basic Economics of Information Production and
	Innovation	35
3.	Peer Production and Sharing	59
4.	The Economics of Social Production	91
	Two. The Political Economy of Property and Commons
5.	Individual Freedom: Autonomy, Information, and Law	133
6.	Political Freedom Part 1: The Trouble with Mass Media	176
7.	Political Freedom Part 2: Emergence of the Networked
	Public Sphere	212

6. Cultural Freedom: A Culture Both Plastic and Critical	273
9. Justice and Development	301
10. Social Ties: Networking Together	356
 Part Three. Policies of Freedom at a Moment of Transformation 11. The Battle Over the Institutional Ecology of the Digital Environment 12. Conclusion: The Stakes of Information Law and Policy 	383 460
Notes
Index	491