

Contents

Acknowledgements	ix
Focus Groups	x
Political/Administrative/Activist etc. Elite In-Depth Interviewees	x
1. Multicultural Nationalism	1
1.1 Nationalism—Ethnic, Civic, Multicultural	3
1.2 Identity—‘Being’, ‘Choosing’, ‘Using’	11
1.3 Two Minorities	18
1.4 The Setting—A Peculiar Nationalism, a Peculiar Multiculturalism, a Peculiar Time	27
1.5 Plan of the Book	35
2. What Is Best and Worst about Scotland	39
2.1 What Is Best and Worst about Britain	40
2.2 What Is Best and Worst about Scotland	42
2.3 Scotland in Comparison	44
2.4 Crossing the Border	45
2.5 Conclusion: The Wrong Stereotypes	48
3. Islamophobia—In England and Scotland	49
3.1 The ‘Death of Multiculturalism’ and the Growth of Islamophobia	50
3.2 Measuring Street-Level Islamophobia	53
3.3 Social Foundations of Islamophobia	57
3.4 Cultural and Political Foundations of Islamophobia	59
3.5 A Multivariate Comparison of Islamophobia in Scotland and England	62
3.6 Conclusion: Islamophobia and Sub-State Nationalisms	64
4. The Auld Enemy	66
4.1 Scottish Phobias: The Displacement Thesis	67
4.2 Measuring Five Scottish Phobias	73

Contents

4.3	The Social Foundations of Scottish Phobias	76
4.4	The Cultural and Political Foundations of Scottish Phobias	78
4.5	A Multivariate Comparison of Anglophobia and Islamophobia in Scotland	80
4.6	How Scottish Phobias Stack Up	81
4.7	Conclusion: Less Phobias or Different Phobias?	82
5.	Eyes Wide Open	84
5.1	How Minorities Attribute Prejudice	85
5.2	Accuracy, Inaccuracy, and Denial	88
5.3	Background or Experience: The Foundations of Phobia-Perceptions	91
5.4	Conclusion: Phobias Come from within, Phobia-Perceptions from Outside	97
6.	Harassment, Discrimination, Abuse	99
6.1	Claiming Rights, Accepting Duties	99
6.2	Perceptions of Discrimination	102
6.3	Experience	108
6.4	Coping	111
6.5	Explaining Conflict Perceptions	114
6.6	Conclusion: More Integration, More Harassment?	119
7.	History, Culture, Symbols	121
7.1	History: Inherited or Manufactured	121
7.2	Culture: Whose Culture?	124
7.3	Symbols: Flag, Venue, Presence	135
7.4	Cultural Divisions	142
7.5	Conclusion: Adapting to Scotland or Adapting Scotland	143
8.	Identity and Identifying	146
8.1	Multiple Identities: Nested, Hyphenated, Flexible, and Instrumental	147
8.2	The Limits of Flexibility: Primary and Secondary Identities	154
8.3	Influences on Identity	159
8.4	Political Consequences of Identity	161
8.5	Conclusions: Bridges and Walls	168
9.	After Devolution: Parliament and People	170
9.1	The Parliament: Performance and Style	170

9.2	The Parliament: Both Inclusive and Exclusive	174
9.3	The Street-Level Consequences of Devolution	183
9.4	The Street-Level Impact of Concurrent Events	189
9.5	A Future in Scotland	196
9.6	Conclusion: Multicultural Nationalism within a Multinational State	197
	References	201
	Index	211