

Contents

Acknowledgments	xi
1 ❖ Identity and the Coming-of-Age Narrative	1
Recreating Womanhood	10
2 ❖ Feminism, Autobiography, and Theories of Subjectivity	23
Feminism and the Autobiographical Act	26
Western Theories of Subjectivity	36
Feminist Poststructuralist Revisions of Subjectivity	43
3 ❖ Coming of Age in America	47
Historical Accounts of Adolescence	49
Psychological Accounts of Adolescence	54
Literary Accounts of Coming of Age	59
The Coming-of-Age Narrative	64
American Grand Narratives of Coming of Age	66
4 ❖ Specifying American Girlhood: Annie Dillard and Anne Moody	75
Specifying the Universal in An American Childhood	76
Hegemonic Inscription of the Body in Coming of Age in Mississippi	91
5 ❖ “Lying Contests”: Fictional Autobiography and Autobiographical Fiction	109
“Lying Contests”: Signifying Coming of Age	114
Janie’s Ways of Knowing	120

6 ❖ “Room for Paradoxes”: Creating a Hybrid Identity	133
A “World of Paper Strengths”: The Education of Kate Simon	136
Mythology and Narrative in the Creation of Identity: The Woman Warrior	148
Notes	161
Works Cited	177
Index	191