
Contents

List of plates	vii
List of contributors	ix
Acknowledgements	xi

PART I

From imperial to post-imperial Britain I

- 1 Disunited kingdom: Irish, Scottish and Welsh writing in the postwar period 9
SIOBHÁN KILFEATHER
- 2 Migration and mutability: the twice born fiction of
Salman Rushdie 31
MINOLI SALGADO

PART II

From welfare state to free market 51

- 3 After feminism: Pat Barker, Penelope Lively and the contemporary novel 58
MARGARETTA JOLLY
- 4 Culture, consensus and difference: Angus Wilson to Alan Hollinghurst 83
ALAN SINFIELD

PART III

Britain, Europe and Americanisation 103

- 5 A cinema in between: postwar British cinema 110
ALISTAIR DAVIES

- 6 Faltering at the line: Auden and postwar British culture 125
ALISTAIR DAVIES

PART IV

Class, consumption and cultural institutions 139

- 7 Art in postwar Britain: a short history of the ICA 146
NANNETTE ALDRED

- 8 Drama in the culture industry: British theatre after 1945 169
DREW MILNE

- 9 Resting on laurels 192
ANDREW CROZIER

- Index* 205