

Table of Contents

List of Abbreviations	11
1. Exploring the Role of Business in Global Governance	13
1.1. Global Governance, Business, and the Question of Power	13
1.2. The Approach	16
1.3. The Structure of the Book	18
1.4. Concluding Thoughts	21
2. The Setting – A Globalizing World	23
2.1. Nature and Extent	25
Conceptual Lenses	25
Substantive Foci	28
Geographic Foci	30
2.2. Driving Forces	32
2.3. Effects	34
2.4. Concluding Thoughts	38
3. Conceptualizing Global Governance	41
3.1. The Concept	42
Governance, Not Government	43
Governance as Steering	45
3.2. Underpinnings and Heritage	46
Political Contingencies and Philosophical Underpinnings	47
The Scientific Heritage	50
3.3. The Problems of the Concept of Global Governance	55
3.4. Concluding Thoughts	58

4. Business as an Actor in Global Governance	61
4.1. Business and Politics	63
The Corporation and Politics	68
4.2. Forms of the New Political Role of Business	72
4.3. Analyzing Power	75
Instrumentalist Approaches	79
Structuralist Approaches	80
Discursive Approaches	83
4.4. The Three-Dimensional Analysis of the Power of Business in Global Governance	87
4.5. Concluding Thoughts	90
5. Trends in the Instrumental Power of Business	93
5.1. Growing Instrumental Power at the National Level	95
Increasing Mobilization	96
The Increasing Value of Informational and Financial Resources	99
Resources, Access, and Influence in Lobbying and Campaign/Party Finance	101
Regulatory Push and Pull	104
5.2. Expanding Instrumental Power Beyond the National Level	106
Business' Transnational and Supranational Lobbying Activities	107
The Influence of Supranational Lobbying Activities by Business	111
5.3. Concluding Thoughts	116
6. Developments in the Structural Power of Business	119
6.1. Channels of the Structural Power of Business	120
Mobile Capital: The Agenda-Setting Power of TNCs	120
Quasi-Regulation: The Agenda- (and Rule-)Setting Power of Coordination Service Firms	124
Public-Private Partnerships: Participation in Rule-Setting	126
Self-Regulation: Increasingly Autonomous Rule-Setting Power	127
6.2. Codes of Conduct as Structural Power	132
The Rise of Codes of Conduct	132
Engines behind the Rise of Codes of Conduct	135
The Contribution to Global Political Problem-Solving	138
6.3. Concluding Thoughts	142

7. Developments in the Discursive Power of Business	145
7.1. Expanding Discursive Power	146
Signals of Expansion	146
Sources of Expanding Discursive Power	149
7.2. The Power of the Discursive Power of Business?	153
7.3. Concluding Thoughts	160
8. Comparing Trends: Non-Business Actors in Global Governance	163
8.1. The State	164
8.2. Civil Society	171
8.3. International Governmental Organizations (IGOs)	176
8.4. Concluding Thoughts	180
9. Interpreting the Power of Business in Global Governance	183
9.1. The Role of Business in Global Governance	184
Interaction and Hierarchy	188
Constraints on Business' Political Power	190
9.2. Implications for Politics	193
9.3. Implications for Research	197
9.4. Outlook	199
Bibliography	203