

Contents

Preface	xi
Abbreviations	xiii
Chapter 1 Introduction	1
Early thoughts about evaluative criteria	1
A conceptual framework	3
Evaluation: the issues	9
Fourth-generation evaluation	13
Realistic evaluation	17
Summary	18
Chapter 2 The Nature of Health Care Management	23
The policy context	23
What is 'health care management'?	26
Public versus private sector management	30
The skills, attributes and competences of managers	31
Health care managers as reflective practitioners	35
Future directions for health care management	39
Summary	44
Chapter 3 Multiple Perspectives and Decision Making	49
Introduction	49
Making rational decisions	50

	Strategic choice	54
	Quality	55
	Differing perspectives	61
	Evidence-based practice	63
	Testable assertions	67
	Summary	69
Chapter 4	Performance Management: Concepts and Approaches	73
	Background to performance management	73
	Performance indicators	77
	'Best value' and what followed	84
	Individual performance review/staff appraisal	89
	The quality movement	93
	Summary	99
Chapter 5	The Evidence-based Organisation	105
	Foundations of evidence-based decision making	108
	What constitutes good evidence?	117
	Reporting evidence	120
	Presentation of evidence	122
	Application of evidence	124
	Outcomes	126
	Summary	132
Chapter 6	Politics, Ethics and Health Care Management	139
	Commissioning evaluation research	141
	The politics of evaluation in the health care system	142
	Structural interests	152
	Ethical perspectives on health care management	159
	Summary	173

Chapter 7	Developing an Evaluative Approach to Health Care Management	177
	Introduction	177
	The past	178
	The present	181
	The future	184
	Summary	186
Index		189