

Contents

| | |
|---|------|
| List of Illustrations | viii |
| Acknowledgements | ix |
| Introduction | 1 |
| 1 From Grand Tour to Home Tour, 1760–1800 | 11 |
| 2 The Post-Union Traveller, 1800–1820 | 59 |
| 3 Trekking to Downfall, 1820–1850 | 100 |
| 4 Travelling to Write, 1850–1860 | 144 |
| Notes | 190 |
| Select Bibliography | 212 |
| Index | 219 |

List of Illustrations

- 1 Wicklow. From Lough Dan looking North towards Luggelaw. Courtesy of the National Library of Ireland 26
- 2 Tone's Interview with Napoleon. Courtesy of the National Library of Ireland 56
- 3 Ireland, by Chapman, John (1812). Courtesy of the National Library of Ireland 71
- 4 Travelling in Connemara. Courtesy of the National Library of Ireland 85
- 5 Protestant Missionary Settlement, Isle of Achill. Courtesy of the National Library of Ireland 106
- 6 Friends' Soup Kitchen. Courtesy of the National Library of Ireland 134
- 7 Geological Map. W. B. Webster, Ireland Considered as a Field for Investment or Residence (Dublin: Hodges & Smith, 1852) 146
- 8 Map of Ireland, Shewing the Distribution of the Constabulary Force. F. B. Head, A Fortnight in Ireland (London: Murray, 1852) 153
- 9 Map Shewing the Residences of Scotchmen and Englishmen who have settled agriculturally in Ireland. T. Miller, The Agricultural and Social State of Ireland in 1858 (Dublin: Thom, 1858) 163