

Contents

Acknowledgements	vii
List of abbreviations	viii
1 Introduction	1
1.1 Structure, methodology and scope	1
1.2 Definitions and stereotypes of disability	3
2 The theoretical framework of disability	11
2.1 A historiography of disability	11
2.2 Modern theories of disability and disability studies	20
2.3 Summary	36
3 Medieval theoretical concepts of the (impaired) body	38
3.1 Thisworldly: notions of health, impairment and sin	38
3.2 Otherworldly: impairment and corporal resurrection	55
3.3 Summary	62
4 Impairment in medieval medicine and natural philosophy	65
4.1 Impairment and the medieval 'sciences'	65
4.2 Aetiologies of impairment	71
4.3 Preventative medicine	98
4.4 Social and 'alternative' medicine	115
4.5 Summary	122
5 Medieval miracles and impairment	126
5.1 The context of saints, miracles and healing	126
5.2 Medicine, transgression and miracle	138
5.3 Narratives of impairment in medieval miracles	153
5.4 Summary	183

6 Conclusion 186Appendix: medieval miracle narratives 191

- V* Miracles in vitae from St Gall 191
F Miracles of St Foy at Conques 194
I Miracles of St Ithamar at Rochester 205
W Miracles of St William of Norwich 207
M Miracles of the Virgin Mary at Rocamadour 215
J Miracles of the Hand of St James at Reading 224
G Miracles of St Godric of Finchale 227
E Miracles of St Elisabeth at Marburg 235

- Notes and references* 260
Select bibliography 332
Index 347