

---

Contents

---

Acknowledgements	9
Introduction
Starry Constellations and Icy Fractals: Reading Nordic Films Past and Present
C. Claire Thomson	11
Spaces • Bodies • Skin
Mastering the House: Performative Inhabitation in Carl Th. Dreyer's The Parson's Widow
Mark Sandberg	23
On the Transmigration of Images: Flesh, Spirit and Haptic Vision in Dreyer's Jeanne d'Arc and von Trier's Golden Heart Trilogy
Bodil Marie Thomsen	43
Bodies in Elevators: The Conveyance of Ethnicity in Recent Swedish Films
Amanda Doxtater	59
Local • National • Global
Local Cinema: Indexical Realism and Thirdspace in Blue Collar White Christmas by Max Kestner
Britta Timm Knudsen	81
Personal Ideology and Collective Cinema: Folk flest bor i Kina and Contemporary Norwegian Political Consciousness
Ellen Rees	97

Gifts, Games, and Cheek: Counter-Globalisation in a Privileged Small-Nation Context. The Case of The Five Obstructions

Mette Hjort

111

Memory • Reality • History

‘Do You Remember Monrépos?’: Melancholia, Modernity and Working-Class Masculinity in The Man Without A Past

Anu Koivunen

133

Incense in the Snow: Topologies of Intimacy and Interculturality in Friðriksson’s Cold Fever and Gondry’s Jóga

C. Claire Thomson

149

The Old Wave: Material History in Cool and Crazy and the New Norwegian Documentary

Gunnar Iversen

175

Auteur • Authority • Subjectivity

Ibsen, Lagerlöf, Sjöström and Terje Vigen: (Inter)nationalism, (Inter)subjectivity and the Interface between Swedish Silent Cinema and Scandinavian Literature

Bjarne Thorup Thomsen

193

The Passions of Lars von Trier: Madness, Femininity, Film

Emma Bell

205

Politics of the Auteurial Subject: Time, Narrative and Intertextuality in Scenes From a Marriage and Faithless

Sharon Lin Tay

217

Notes on Contributors

231

Index

235