
CONTENTS

PREFACE

page xiii

I • NOUNS

NOMINATIVE	1
VOCATIVE
ACCUSATIVE	2
Accusative as the case of the direct object
Cognate accusative
Double accusative
Elliptic accusative	3
Adverbial accusative
(a) Accusative of place
(b) Accusative of time	4
(c) Accusative of quantity
Accusative with impersonal verbs
Accusative with adjectives	5
Accusative absolute
GENITIVE	6
Genitive with nouns
(a) Genitive as the case of possession
(b) Partitive genitive
Genitive with adjectives	8
Genitive with verbs	9
(a) Genitive as the case of the direct object
(b) Genitive object has partitive character
(c) Genitive object after negative verb	10
(d) Verbs traditionally governing the genitive	11
Genitive with accusative	12
Genitive with dative	13
Predicative genitive
Genitive of cause	14
Genitive of comparison

Genitive as the case of the subject	15
Genitive as ablative
Adverbial genitive
(a) Genitive of place
(b) Genitive of time	16
(c) Modal genitive
Position of the genitive	17
Decline of the genitive	18
Future of the genitive	20
Note on the construction dem Mann sein Geld	21
Pleonastic genitive
Dependent genitive uninflected	22
DATIVE
Dative as the case of the indirect object
Dative as the case of the direct object
Dative of interest	23
Ethic dative	24
Dative with adjectives
Dative with nouns	26
Reflexive dative
Dative as the case of possession	27
Dative after verbs compounded with a preposition (preverb)
Dative after verbs compounded with adverbs of place	30
Dative after interjections	31
Dative as representative of lost cases
(a) Dative as ablative
(b) Dative as locative	32
(c) Dative as instrumental	33
(d) Dative absolute
INSTRUMENTAL	35
II · ADJECTIVES
STRONG ADJECTIVES
Origins	37
Attributive adjective, inflected and uninflected	38
Postpositive adjective	39
Predicative adjective
WEAK ADJECTIVES
Origins	40
Basic difference between weak and strong adjectives	41

CONTENTS

vii

Mixed declension	42
Anomalies and alternation between strong and weak adjectives	43
Comparative and superlative	45
DEFECTIVE ADJECTIVES
FROM ADJECTIVE TO SUBSTANTIVE
Substantivized adjectives referring to persons	46
Substantivized adjectives referring to things	47
FROM SUBSTANTIVE TO ADJECTIVE
III • ADVERBS
Oldest stratum	50
Adverbs from case forms
General development of adverbs from adjectives	51
Other modes of forming adverbs	52
IV • PRONOUNS
PERSONAL PRONOUNS
Introductory	53
3rd person pronoun
Extended uses of es	55
Possessive pronouns	56
Pronoun replaced by adverb	58
Exceptions to replacement rule	59
Pronouns of address	61
Pronouns of address in the South	64
Omission of pronoun
Reflexive pronoun	67
(a) Changes in genitive and possessive pronoun	68
(b) Ambiguity
(c) Reciprocal use	69
(d) Suppression of reflexive pronoun	70
(e) einander
DEMONSTRATIVE PRONOUNS
General demonstrative der
dieser, jener	72
derjenige	73
derselbe
solch (derartig)	75

INTERROGATIVE PRONOUNS

wer, †weder
welch, was für	77

INDEFINITE PRONOUNS AND ADVERBS

wer, wo, welch	78
'some, any'
je, immer	80
jeder, jedweder, jeglich; all, beide	82
man, einer, sie	84

V · ARTICLES

Origins	86
Definite article	88
Indefinite article	89
Generalizing use of the articles	90
Survivals from the pre-article stage in later German	91
Archaic use after prepositions	92
Article and preposition as inseparable unit	93
Definite article with proper names	94
Treatment of nouns denoting substances, abstract nouns, etc.	96
Articles in Southern German
Articles with pronouns	97
Idiomatic usage
Both articles combined	98

VI · VERBS

General typology	99
Aspects	100
Preverb ge- in MHG and NHG	103
Note on English tenses	104
INDICATIVE	105

TENSES OF THE INDICATIVE AND THEIR USES

Present tense	106
Present as indicator of future time	107
Periphrastic future tenses	109
(a) Modals as future auxiliaries
(b) werden as future auxiliary	111
Preterite	113
Development of periphrastic past tenses	114
(a) Periphrastic tenses with the verb 'to have'

CONTENTS

ix

(b) Periphrastic tenses with the verb 'to be'	116
Distribution of the auxiliaries 'to have' and 'to be'
(a) Aspective differences	117
(b) The verbs liegen, sitzen, stehen
(c) Verbs of motion	118
(d) Interchange of transitive and intransitive	119
(e) Auxiliary with the verb 'to be'	120
(f) Developments in English and Romance
Relationship between preterite and perfect	121
(a) Perfect replacing preterite
(b) Preterite and perfect in the spoken language today	123
(c) Preterite replacing perfect	124
(d) Other uses of perfect	125
Future perfect
Pluperfect
Finite verb suppressed	127
SUBJUNCTIVE
Tenses and basic uses
Decline of the subjunctive	128
Subjunctive in main clauses	129
Subjunctive in subordinate clauses	132
Subjunctive versus indicative in indirect statement	136
Subjunctive in dependent interrogative clauses	139
Subjunctive in conditional sentences
Miscellaneous use of preterite subjunctive	140
Pret. subj. of werden with infinitive	141
Subjunctive replaced by modal auxiliary with infinitive	142
IMPERATIVE
PASSIVE
Evolution of passive periphrasis	143
Impersonal passive	145
Passive in English and other languages	146
INFINITIVE
Introductory	147
Simple and prepositional infinitives in competition
Accusative and infinitive	151
Infinitive replacing present participle	152
Infinitive with passive meaning, passive participle
Construction um zu , etc.	153

Infinitive as imperative, etc.	155
Infinitives as nouns
tun with infinitive	157
Infinitive instead of past participle
PARTICIPLES
Present participle	159
sein with present participle	161
Past participle	162
Past participle after kommen	164
Past participle as imperative	165
Other absolute use of past participle
REFLEXIVE VERBS	166
IMPERSONAL VERBS	169
From impersonal to personal construction	171
VII · PREPOSITIONS
Introductory	174
Origin of primary prepositions	175
Preverb and preposition	177
The prepositions mit, ohne, sonder
The prepositions auf, aus, außer, von	179
Evolution of secondary prepositions	180
(a) Preliterary period
(b) Literary period	181
gegen versus wider	187
Prepositions ordinarily used with accusative and dative	188
The doublets vor and für	190
The preposition über	191
The preposition zu	193
nach and nahe, nächst, fern	194
Case after prepositions; a note on regional use
Traditional prepositions now obsolete or obsolescent	195
VIII · CONCORD
GENDER
General use of the masculine	198
Pronouns	199
Articles	200
NUMBER
General and collective use of the singular

CONTENTS

xi

Nouns plural in form but singular in meaning	201
Abstract nouns used in the plural	202
Subject and verb	203
Collective noun with plural pronoun	204
Copula	205

IX · NEGATION

Emergence of nicht	207
Parallels in French and English	208
Negative pronouns and adverbs	209
Double negative	210
Position of nicht	211
Pleonastic negative	212
Litotes	213

X · CLAUSE COMBINATION

CO-ORDINATION

Asyndesis	214
Demonstrative words, etc.
Co-ordinating conjunctions	215

SUBORDINATION

Asyndesis	220
The conjunction daß	222
daß preceded by a preposition	224
indem, nachdem	225
damit
doch	226

CONJUNCTIONS FROM ADVERBS

da, †do
wo	227
dann, denn	228
wann, wenn	229
† wan causal	230
† wan, †niwan	231
so
also, als	232
† sam	235
wie
nun	237
ehe, bevor
seit(dem), sintemal	238

CONJUNCTIONS FROM OTHER PARTS OF SPEECH

ob	239
weil	240
falls	241
trotzdem

RELATIVE CLAUSES

Asyndetic relative clauses	242
Relative pronouns
From demonstrative to relative pronoun	243
From demonstrative to relative adverb	244
Attraction	245
From interrogative to relative
welch	247
das — welches — was	248
Relative particles	249
Strengthened relatives	251
Relative with 1st or 2nd person	252
Relative in literary style	253
Average use today	254

XI · WORD ORDER

Finite verb first	256
Finite verb second	258
Finite verb at the end in main clause	260
Position of finite verb in subordinate clause	261
Position of the infinitive	265
Position of the past participle	267
Position of the present participle	268
From paratax to hypotax
Compound verbs with separable prefix (preverb)	270
Incapsulation	271
Dative and accusative
Inflexions and word order	272
Emphatic word order	273
Stylistic variation	275
Word order in English

INDEX OF AUTHORS OR WORKS

Old High German	277
Middle High German
New High German	278