

Contents

Preface	vii
Acknowledgements	xi
PART 1 READING POETRY	1
1 Reading aloud	3
2 Describing a poem	13
3 Varieties of poetic style	30
4 Evaluation of poetry	41
PART 2 POETRY THROUGH THE CENTURIES	53
Introduction	54
5 Medieval poetry: the genesis of English verse	57
Special Study 1: Geoffrey Chaucer	71
6 The Renaissance: a time of tension	80
Special Study 2: Sir Philip Sidney	91
Special Study 3: William Shakespeare	101
7 The early seventeenth century: the pilgrimage to ‘the kingdom of man’	109
Special Study 4: John Donne	118
Special Study 5: John Milton	148
8 The Restoration and Augustanism: the attainment of limited clarity	157
Special Study 6: Alexander Pope	169
Special Study 7: Anne Finch, Countess of Winchilsea	179
9 Romanticism: in praise of imagination	198
Special Study 8: William Wordsworth	209
Special Study 9: John Keats	224
10 Victorianism: faith and doubt	236
Special Study 10: Alfred, Lord Tennyson	246
Special Study 11: Christina Rossetti	260

11	Modernism: 'Make it new'	267
	Special Study 12: William Butler Yeats	276
	Special Study 13: T. S. Eliot	286
12	After Modernism	297
	Special Study 14: Robert Lowell	308
	Special Study 15: Philip Larkin	316
	Special Study 16: Sylvia Plath	323
	Special Study 17: Ted Hughes	332
13	Contemporary poetry	340
	Historical tables	358
	Glossary of literary terms	374
	Further reading	379
	Index	380