

CONTENTS

PART ONE: THE COMIC AND THE NARRATIVE--FROM ABSENTMINDEDNESS TO TRICKERY

FOREWORD	i
PREFACE	v
ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS	vii
Introduction: Molière's place in the history and nature of comedy	1
Moliéresque moralism: comic certainties, socio-textual ambiguities	23
More moralism: familiar foibles, fresh new characters	31
Moliéresque theatrical chaos	43
Speech, voice, and body in the Moliéresque narrative	49
Tartuffe	55
Dom Juan	63
Le misanthrope	69
George Dandin	75
Le bourgeois gentilhomme	79
More on the mechanics of Moliéresque comedy	91

PART TWO: THE POLITICAL MACHINE AND THE MACHINERY OF ABSOLUTIST POLITICS
On the political context of Louis's rulership	99
Power performance/performance power: Louis and Molière on stage	103
The Pascalian faith-act	121
Art (and comedy) as instruction	125
L'école des femmes	131
Tartuffe	137
Dom Juan	149
Le misanthrope	157
George Dandin	163
Le bourgeois gentilhomme	169
Conclusion: of kings, comedians, and performing machines	181
BIBLIOGRAPHY	195
INDEX	203