

Contents

List of Music Examples	vi
Acknowledgements	vii
Introduction: Music for Reading	1
1 'Something familiar': Reading Elgar	13
2 Voicing the Libretto: David Malouf and Michael Berkeley	41
3 Quasi Parlando I: Polyphony and Musical Value in Bakhtin and Kundera	69
4 Quasi Parlando II: Blanchot and the Silent Narrative	89
5 Contemporary Fiction and the Music Itself	105
The Final Score: Art & Lies	106
Performing the Canon: An Equal Music	117
Representing the Composer: Grace Notes, Amsterdam and Disgrace	129
6 Words Without Song: Kafka and The Unconsoled	141
Bibliography	161
Index	175

List of Music Examples

- | | | |
|-----|--|----|
| 1.1 | Elgar, Symphony No. 1 Op. 55, i, bars 1–25. | 18 |
| 2.1 | Michael Berkeley, Baa Baa Black Sheep: A Jungle Tale . First motif.
(Piano reduction by Susan Bradshaw. © OUP 1993 and 1996. Extract reproduced by permission.) | 61 |
| 2.2 | Michael Berkeley, Baa Baa Black Sheep: A Jungle Tale . Second motif.
(Piano reduction by Susan Bradshaw. © OUP 1993 and 1996. Extract reproduced by permission.) | 62 |