

Contents

	Historical Overview: Is There an External World?	3
I.	The Failings of the Senses and Intuition	21
II.	The Rise and Role of Mathematics	38
III.	The Astronomical Worlds of the Greeks	51
IV.	The Heliocentric Theory of Copernicus and Kepler	68
V.	Mathematics Dominates Physical Science	86
VI.	Mathematics and the Mystery of Gravitation	107
VII.	Mathematics and the Imperceptible Electromagnetic World	126
VIII.	A Prelude to the Theory of Relativity	148
IX.	The Relativistic World	163
X.	The Dissolution of Matter: Quantum Theory	181
XI.	The Reality of Mathematical Physics	197
XII.	Why Does Mathematics Work?	210
XIII.	Mathematics and Nature's Behavior	228
	Bibliography	246
	Index	255