

Contents

Foreword by Hermann Häring	iv
Foreword by Jonneke Bekkenkamp	v
Introduction by Erik Borgman	1

PART I

The "Desiderata of Concretion"

1	Erik Hagoort: The Ethos of the "Artificial Miracle"	15
2	Maaïke Bleeker: When God Looks Back: Rereading Religious Ritual on Stage	31
3	Madeleine Kasten: Mercy's Machinations: The Merchant of Venice Reread	49
4	Caroline Vander Stichele: Capital Re-Visions: The Head of John the Baptist as Object of Art	71

PART II

Revealing Things Hidden

5	Henry Jansen: Frederick Buechner's Godric : Art, Religion, and Reality	89
6	Markha G. Valenta: In Fear and Trembling of Abstraction: Dorothy Day and Jacques Derrida Writing the Religious in (Post)Modern Society	107

PART III

Unlocking the "Weak" Truth of Being

7	Jonneke Bekkenkamp: "Verge, Horizon, Hold": Getting and Losing Hold of Reality in the Poetry of M. Vasalis and Judith Herzberg	131
8	Sander van Maas: A Transfiguration of the Ear	157
9	Marije Altorf: An Eye to Endure the Sight of the Divine (Sophist 254a): Literary and Systematic Ways of Expressing Divine Reality	189