
Contents

Stephanie Wilde. Introduction. Political and Citizenship Education: international perspectives, 7

PART ONE

Carole L. Hahn. US Students Becoming Citizens: insights from the IEA Civic Education Study, 13

David Kerr. 'England's Teenagers Fail the Patriotic Test': the lessons from England's participation in the IEA Civic Education Study, 29

Kerry J. Kennedy & Suzanne Mellor. Developing a 'Democracy of the Mind': lessons for Australian schools from the IEA Civic Education Study, 49

W.O. Lee. Aspirations for Democracy in the Absence of a Democracy: civic education in Hong Kong before and after 1997, 61

PART TWO

John Sayer. Developing Schools for Democracy in Europe: a decade with Trans-European Mobility Programmes for University Studies (TEMPUS), 87

Cynthia Miller-Idriss. Citizenship Education and Political Extremism in Germany: an ethnographic analysis, 101

Stephanie Wilde. Papering over the Cracks? Extra-curricular and Cross-curricular Citizenship Learning in Secondary Schools in Germany, 123

Notes on Contributors, 143