

CONTENTS

Preface	ix
A note on translations	xii
List of abbreviations	xiii
Introduction: history's other eye	I
History and geography	6
Challenges to the classical Weltbild	20
I Orosius	35
Overview of Orosius' Historia	39
The geographical introduction	64
Conclusions	97
2 Jordanes	100
Cassiodorus and Jordanes	101
The geographical introduction	115
Analysis of individual sections	132
Justinian and the Goths	162
Conclusions	168
3 Isidore of Seville	170
The historical writing of Isidore of Seville	171
The composition of the Gothic histories	179
The Laus Spaniae	185
The Laus Gothorum	197
The Geography of Spain	199
Epithalamial themes	205
Conclusions	226
4 Bede	229
The Historia Ecclesiastica	234
The geographical introduction	249
Ethnography	274

Contents

The origin myths	282
The Historia Ecclesiastica and the Angli	290
Conclusions	307
5 Conclusions	310
Appendices
A The geographical introduction to the Historiarum adversus paganos libri septem of Orosius. Orosius, Hist. 1.1–106	313
B The geographical introduction to the De origine actibusque Getarum of Jordanes. Getica 1.4–v.38.	321
C The Laus Spaniae of Isidore of Seville	327
D The description of Britain in Bede, Historia Ecclesiastica 1.1	329
References	332
Primary Sources	332
Secondary Works	345
Index	373