

Contents

List of contributors	vii
Acknowledgements	xi
Introduction	1
Poul Rind Christensen and Flemming Poulfelt
1 One decade later: following up the ‘Gröna Kvisten’ prize-winning growth firms	10
Leona Achtenhagen, Jenny Helin, Leif Melin and Lucia Naldi
2 New business early performance: differences between firms started by novice, serial and portfolio entrepreneurs	35
Gry Agnete Alsos, Lars Kolvereid and Espen John Isaksen
3 Small firms’ relationships and knowledge acquisition: an empirical investigation	50
Mariachiara Colucci and Manuela Presutti
4 The evolution of firms created by the Swedish science and technology labour force, 1990–2000	69
Frédéric Delmar, Karin Hellerstedt and Karl Wennberg
5 Innovation and the characteristics of cooperating and non-cooperating small firms	103
Mark Freel
6 Complex explanations of order creation, emergence and sustainability as situated entrepreneurship	136
Ted Fuller and Lorraine Warren
7 Extreme entrepreneurs: challenging the institutional framework	156
Bengt Johansson and Caroline Wigren
8 Debriefing and motivating knowledge workers in small IT firms: challenges to leadership	180
Mette Monsted
9 Business angels investing at early stages: are they different?	198
Nils Månsson and Hans Landström

10	Internationalization of new ventures: mediating role of entrepreneur and top management team experience Johanna Pulkkinen	220
	Index	259