

CONTENTS

Illustrations	v
Preface	vii
Acknowledgments	xiii
Jost Hermand
Victory for the Just Cause!
Ludwig Ferdinand Schnorr von Carolsfeld: Cäcilia Tschudi as a Valkyrie (1813)	1
Kirsten Belgum
Tracking the Liberal Hero in the Nineteenth Century	15
Response by Gabrielle Bersier	35
Peter Morris-Keitel
Of No Commercial Value:
The Green Hero Curt Grottewitz (1866–1905)	39
Response by Carolyn O. Becker	63
Carol Poore
From Problem Child to Human Being:
Positive Representations of People with Physical Disabilities in Germany	65
Response by Robert C. Holub	99
Stephen Brockmann
Heroes of the Zero Hour	103
Response by Alexa Larson-Thorisch	123

Janet Swaffar
Heroes and Reunification: The Resistance of Cultural Memory from Two Germanies	131
Response by Helen Fehervary	157
Karen R. Achberger
“Ein Sultan, ein Wilder, ein Halbgott, ein Prinz”: The Romantic Hero in Ingeborg Bachmann’s Works of the 1960s	163
Response by Alan Lareau	187
James W. Jones
Whose Heroes? German AIDS Literature by Gay Men	193
Response by James D. Young	223
Evelyn Torton Beck
Look Back in Wonder: A Reminiscence	227
Frank Trommler
Jost Hermand or the Ways of Shaping a Discipline	241
Jost Hermand’s Ph.D. Students and Their Dissertation Topics	255