

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Foreword	1
Introduction	3
Chapter I. The Emerging Metropolis in the Works of Wilhelm Raabe
1. A Retrospective View: Die Chronik der Sperlingsgasse	8
2. The City as Educator: Die Leute aus dem Walde	32
Chapter II. Metropolitan Society in Flux. Three Berlin Novels of Theodor Fontane
1. Social and Geographical Extremes: Irrungen Wirrungen	43
2. A Converging Perspective: Frau Jenny Treibel	51
3. An Isolated View: Die Poggenpuhls	61
Chapter III. The Plight of the Proletariat. Clara Viebig's Das tägliche Brot	74
Chapter IV. "Local Color" in Berlin. Georg Hermann's Kubinke	101
Chapter V. "Greater Berlin" and "Little Man": Spatial Elements in the Confrontation of Man and Metropolis. Hans Fallada's Kleiner Mann — was nun?	123
Chapter VI. The City as Metaphor for the Human Condition. Alfred Döblin's Berlin Alexanderplatz	145
Conclusion	168
Afterword	174
Selected List of Works Consulted	175