Contents

Introduction – How plural is modernity? ................................................................. 3
  Sérgio Costa, José Maurício Domingues, Wolfgang Knöbl,
  Josué Pereira da Silva

Multiple, entangled, fragmented and other modernities. Reflections on comparative sociological research on Europe, North and Latin America .......... 11
  Willfried Spohn

The universal underneath the multiple: Social acceleration as a key to understanding modernity .................................................................................. 23
  Hartmut Rosa

Sociology and transnational contexts of agency: Lessons from the Black Atlantic .................................................................................................. 43
  Sérgio Costa

One modernity? The ‘war for men’s minds’ in peripheral contexts ............. 57
  Manuela Boatcă

Prisons, violence and transnational configurations .......................................... 71
  Myrian Sepúlveda dos Santos

The globalisation of ‘democratic’ policing: Community policing as an export model ................................................................................................. 87
  Ruth Stanley

Can federal states concentrate authority? Intergovernmental relations and social policies in Brazil ........................................................................... 99
  Marta Arretche

The Brazilian way of dealing with inequality .................................................. 117
  Celi Scalon and Ignacio Cano

Beyond recognition: Street culture and social inclusion .............................. 139
  Tereza Ventura

Basic income and citizenship theory: Comments on a recent Brazilian law .... 149
  Josué Pereira da Silva
The hidden side of modernity in Africa – Domesticating savage lives ........... 161
  Elisio Macamo

Amartya Sen, freedom and development: A critical view .......................... 179
  José Maurício Domingues

Globalising democracy without a State: Weak public, strong public, global constitutionalism ........................................................................... 195
  Hauke Brunkhorst

Multiple modernities and political sociology ............................................ 215
  Wolfgang Knöbl

Authors ........................................................................................................ 229